Largest Class In History

58 To Begin Nursing At St. Joseph's Elmira

The growing need for nurses in the community has made it imperative for St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing to admit the largest class in the history of the school.

Fifty-eight students will be welcomed formally by Sister Anne Maurice, Director of Nursing, and members of the faculty, on Tuesday, Sept. 6.

A week of social activities, community tours and tours to various departments of the hospitals has been planned by the faculty and student groups to orient the new students before they begin formal studies. They will be entertained on Sept. 6 by their "big sisters", on Sept. 7 by the entire student body, and on Sept. 9 by the faculty.

OF THE FIFTY-EIGHT students two are daughters and two are sisters of former graduates. Mary Patricia Hayes is the daughter of Mrs. Marianna Hayes and Susan Osborn is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Osborn.

Barbara McCarrick is a sister of Sister Marillise, a former graduate and member of the hospital nursing staff, and Jo Ann O'Loughlin is a sister of Mrs. Eileen Palmer of Binghamton from St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, the students are eligible to take the State Board licensing examinations.

Their three years of preparation includes general medical and surgical nursing, nursing of children, obstetrics, nutrition and operating room nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital; psychiatric nursing at Utica State Hospital and tuberculosis nursing at Mount Morris Tuberculosis Hospital.

THE NEED OF professional nurses in hospitals, public health, industry and schools is rapidly increasing, a hospital spokesman said. St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing aims to help fulfill this need in accepting students each year in its diploma program.

Hornell Band Founder, Mercy Sister Feted

Sister M. Raymond Joseph, who is leaving St. Ann's School, after heading its music department for 13 years, received a tribute last week from members of the school band she organized and directed.

Wearing their green and white uniforms, members of St. Ann's School Band lined up in front of St. Ann's Convent in marching formation at 7:30 p.m.

The color guard and drum majorettes executed the Salute to the Pine Room of the school for a surprise farewell party. There were songs and tributes from band members and many students.

TRIBUTES WERE given commending Sister Raymond Joseph for her "dedicated, unselfish service to all the young people fortunate enough to come under her kindly guidance." Sister was presented with a bouquet of roses to be placed before a shrine of her patron saint, St. Joseph.

The 110-member marching band at St. Ann's, which has made many public appearances and received trophies in Buffalo meet in March this year, was formed by Sister Raymond Joseph.

Sister has been assigned to St. Charles Borromeo School in Rochester.

Sister Mary Gabriel, who headed St. Ann's music department several years ago, will return to that position in September. For the past seven years she has been stationed at Holy Family School in Auburn.

Corningite Bishop Green Installed

Corning — A former Corningite and a frequent visitor to the city, Bishop Francis J. Green, a new vicar official appointed to Bishop Daniel J. Gercke, spiritual leader in the Diocese of Tucson, Ariz.

Officially designated as administrator bishop of Tucson, with right to succession, Bishop Green took his place "in line" at a Pontifical High Mass on Aug. 15, the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Actual naming of the former Corningite to the honored position was made by Pope John XXIII last May 6. The Pope's letter of designation was ordered to be read to the congregation on the next Holy Day, that of the Assumption.

AN OVERFLOW CROWD of clergymen and religious leaders was on hand for the occasion held in San Agustin Cathedral where Bishop Green was ordained a priest in 1933, and where he was consecrated auxiliary Bishop in 1953.

Two Corningites witnessed the Green rites, Miss Jessie Reed, 16 E. Fourth St., and her late sister, the late Miss Maud A. Reed.
