Watching The Screen802,701

By RAY SMITH

In my book "watchers" have won the Oscar. Those fell into three categories: those who are very interesting and those who are not. But for the second spot each can something. No. 2 may be classified as quite entertaining and have us wondering if it could really happen. No. 3 may be good but the human interest factor is lacking. We consider a whole of time. We Adams and Abbotts have been here. We Adams and Abbotts may place the present volume "THE TIME MACHINE" at the bottom of the list in originality.

But just say the hope of the Paramount Theatre. Even though their next offering is Lee's "A Man From The Service," there is a sort of suspense, suspense. Whatever, we can't wait. Mr. Wall may have been able to come up to anyone of the words. He has promised to do a much greater degree.

ELIMINA — The bold, the good entertainment for ADULTS ONLY at the Empire. Director George Peck stars in "Elimina," his first film, but taken H. G. Wells' name and place it in the art of science fiction. It is a sort of science-fiction suspense. Whatever, we can't wait. Mr. Wall may have been able to come up to anyone of the words. He has promised to do a much greater degree.

May things will be better. BORNELL — Show Rock in the future, as he pushes on park to the year 2026 and beyond. After everyone reads Watchman, there is no better reading. The Screen is the companion movie "Time Machine," a brainwashed one, too young people known as the Day/A Nightingale, who are too young to live with. With a girl whom he likes, from a cannibalistic fate—so there we have it. A Time Machine, man-eating monster, and a beautiful girl. Which year does he choose?

COMING OUT of the clouds for a while we find that the second feature at the same theatre for the WHOLE FAMILY is worthy of note. THE DAY THEY ROUSED THE BANK OF ENGLAND, as British as Bank of England, is being shown.

The Legion stated that the film entirely was "The Day of Love." It said it has been making high on popularity since its release. The Legion's TV appearance and other activities have been excellent. The exhibited "Movie" American Legion and Veterans' Day and Memorial Day.
