

Refugee Aide Committee For Festa

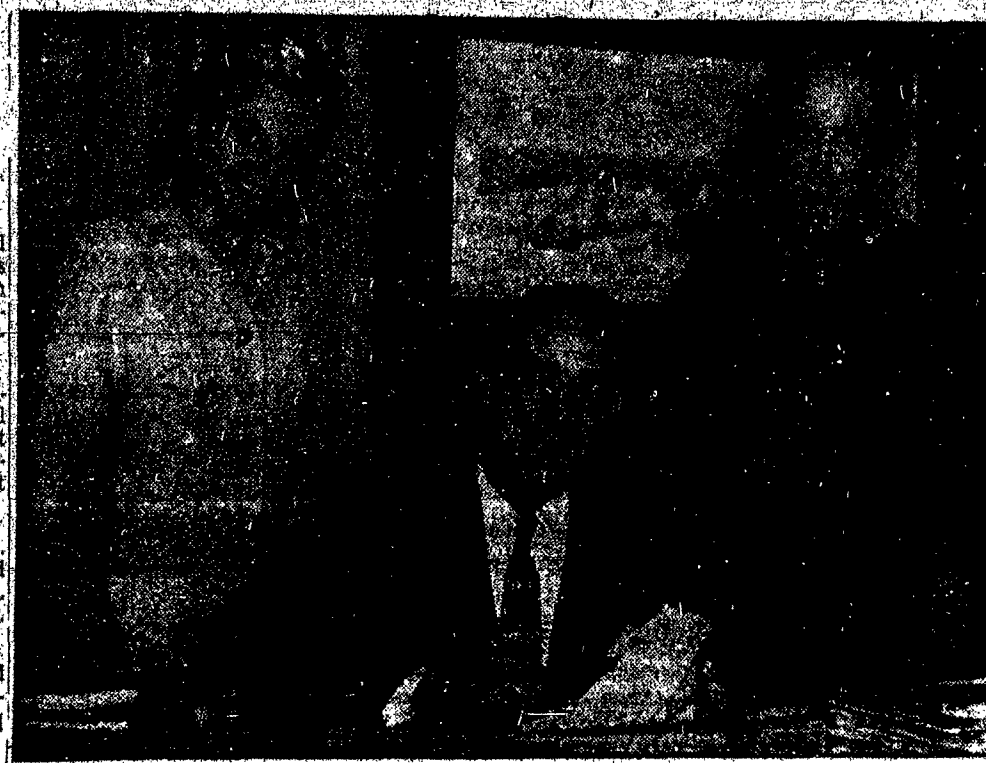

The Italian Festa scheduled for this Sunday to raise funds for Tunisian refugees has been arranged by an extensive committee headed by Bishop Kearney and Bishop Casey.

Dinner hour at the immaculate Conception school hall will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Tickets at $2 may be obtained from parish committee members or at the festa.

Committee officials are Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Azz and Very Rev. Msgr. George A. Cocuzzi, co-chairmen and Rev. Albert Simonetti, consultant.

Rt. Rev. Arthur Ratigan and Rev. Gennaro Ventura are public relations chairman and treasurer.

Lay members are Atty. Frank Celona, Atty. Dominick Polizzi, Louis Valenza, Arthur Delman, Carl Arena, Anthony Glambro, Joseph Angalone, Joseph Mark, Paul Brignoli and Miss Johanna Miceli.

Catholic Women's Day Oct. 8

Rochester's Mayor Peter Barry this week signed the proclamation to make Saturday, Oct. 8, Catholic Women's Day, date of the annual convention of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. The proclamation cites the organization's "aid in the solution of present day religious, moral, educational, social and economic problems." The mayor urged all members to attend the convention. With him in photo are Mrs. Richard Weider, Council president, and Mrs. Felix Fleming, public relations chairman.

Auburn Couples Mark 50 Years

GOLDEN JUBILIANS Mr. and Mrs. Peter Avola (left) of 39 Lafayette Place and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Giacalone (right) of 11 VanPatten St., residents of Auburn, were married in a double wedding ceremony on Sept. 17, 1910 in St. Francis Church. Both couples celebrated their 50th anniversary at a joint party given by their children at Springside Inn. An anniversary Mass of thanksgiving was held for the couples at St. Francis Church on Saturday, Sept. 17 at 10 a.m. Mrs. Avola and Mrs. Giacalone are sisters. Guests were present from New York City, Jersey City and Detroit, Mich.

St. Stephen Rosarians Plan Bazaar Nov. 17

Geneva — Second annual bazaar of St. Stephen's Rosary Society will be held on Nov. 17 in the school hall. Miss Madeline Buckley and Mrs. C. William Parker are co-chairmen of the event.

Plans were made at the opening fall meeting of the society, in the school hall. The new president, Mrs. George Doe, welcomed the members and the moderator, the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan.

FATHER NOLAN, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, succeeds Father John Duffy, former moderator, who was recently transferred. He introduced the new assistant pastor, the Rev. Bernard L. Conley.

The program was outlined for the coming year.

Cenacle Nuns To Mark Feastday Of Foundress

The Religious of the Cenacle will celebrate the feastday of their foundress, Blessed Therese Couderc, on Monday, September 26. This year her feast marks the 75th anniversary of her death in Lyons, France, at the age of eighty.

Blessed Therese Couderc transformed a hostel for pilgrims, at La Louvesc, France, into a retreat house for women, in collaboration with a diocesan missionary, Father Stephen Terme, in 1887.

The Religious and Cenacle retreatants now seek two more such miracles, with a view toward canonization. There are some relics available at the retreat house on 683 East Avenue, in Rochester, but there are very few first-class relics, as Blessed Therese's body has remained incorrupt and is exposed for veneration in the La Louvesc Cenacle chapel.

The Feast of Blessed Couderc this year will be the date of the first Cenacle Retreat League meeting of the season.

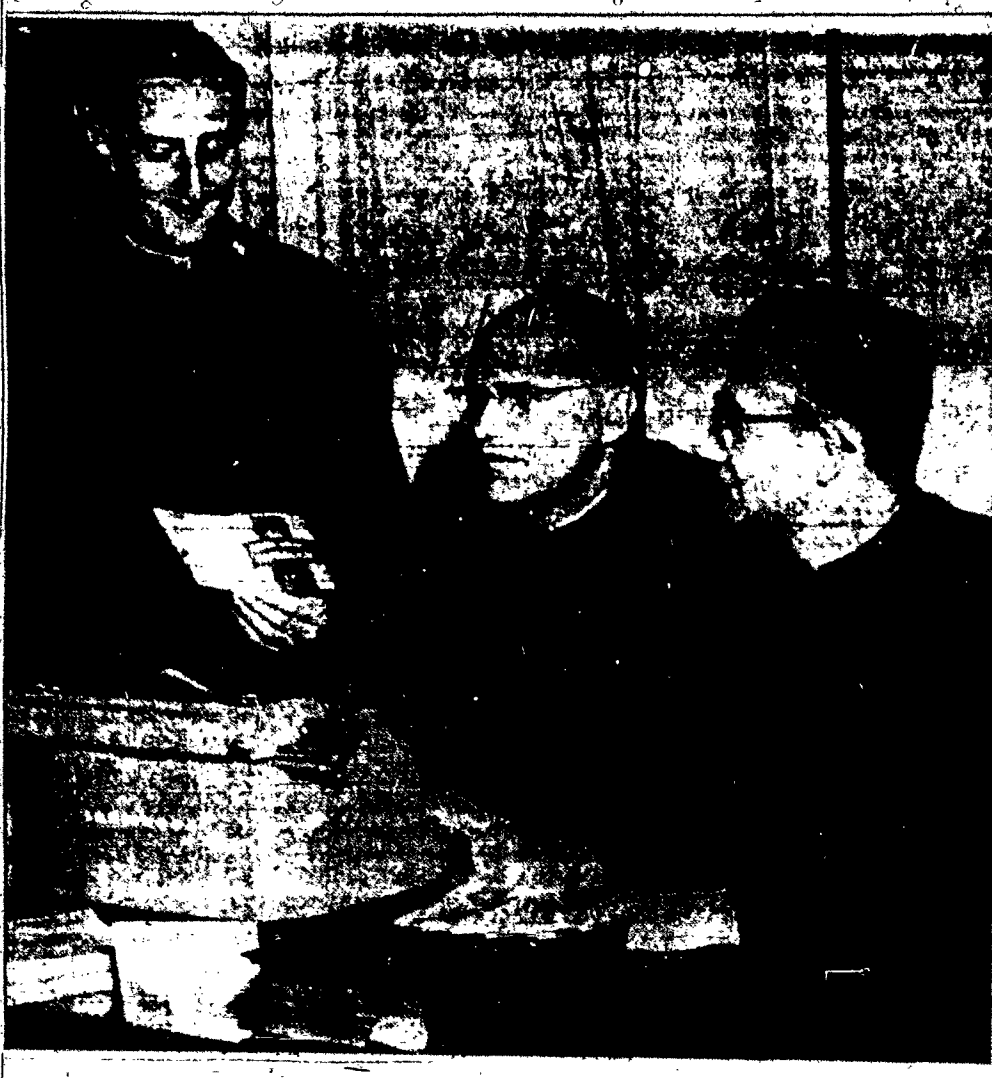

Rev. James P. Malone, S.J., will give a talk on prayer at the Cenacle at 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 26. All members of the League may attend. Council members will hold their business meeting before the talk.

Navy Doctor's Ship Rewarded
A U.S. Navy officer from Rochester, Lt. Lawrence J. Nacey (M.C.) U.S.N.R., is serving aboard the attack cargo ship, U.S.S. Rankin, which on Sept. 9 became the first ship in the U.S. Atlantic Fleet to win the Gold "E" Award.

The award is for excellence as a cargo ship during amphibious operations.

LIEUTENANT NACEY is serving as the Rankin Medical Officer. His department received the mark of excellence during the Amphibious Force medical inspection.

Instruction Series To Begin

PRIESTS OF HOLY FAMILY parish will inaugurate a series of instructions in the teachings of the Catholic Faith beginning Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall on Jay St. The hour-long, weekly talks are offered to Catholics and non-Catholics interested in learning more about the Church and its teachings. An informal question period will follow each talk. Holy Family curates Fathers David Mattie, Dominic Mockevietus and William Graf are shown in photo planning the series.

U.S. Aid Promised

Washington — (NC) — The American Bishops hope to send 1,000 U.S. priests, Brothers and Sisters to Latin America in the next five years, an authority said here.

Father John J. Considine, M.M., also told newsmen that the Bishops hope to open 50 new high schools and colleges and universities during the 1960s. They will be staffed by U.S. teaching communities.

Mass Role To Gain

Karachi — (NC) — While Pakistani lay people here have not yet joined in participating in the Mass to the extent expected and desired, the liturgical movement is bound to gain in popularity, according to Archbishop Joseph Cordeiro of Karachi.
