The Church Prays For The Departed

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace — that was the prayer in thousands of hearts and chanted in the Church's ancient Latin ritual as Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey blessed graves at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery Sunday afternoon. Father Francis Feeeney and Father Michael Tydings were deacon and subdeacon at the ceremony. Knights of St. John escorted the procession of clergy and seminarian through the cemetery.

Bishop Kearney To Offer First Elmira Red Mass

A committee under the chairmanship of Recorder John D. The Channing County Supreme Court Term opens in Elmira for a Red Mass to be celebrated October 13 at St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira, on October 1, at 12:10 (noon).

The Red Mass is celebrated each year in such cities as Rome, London and Paris. Bishop Kearney will preside at the Mass and preach the sermon.

Specific purpose of the Mass is to invoke the Holy Spirit's assistance in the activities of the bench and bar during the color of the vestments worn by court year and its history during the celebrant.

Nazareth Mass Honors Prexy

At the request of the faculty of Nazareth College, Mass was offered by the Rev. William Shannon, college chaplain, on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 22, for the intentions of Sister Helen Daniel, new president of the college.

Following The Mass

For two of the nine faculty members added this year to meet the growing needs of the college, this was a return to Nazareth rather than a new assignment. Sister Rose Alena, who is presently the Dean of Student Services, and Miss Norma Scaville, of the Department of Physical Education, were previously at Nazareth.
