Carl Sandburg
By EUPHEMIA WYATT

THE WORLD OF CARL Sandburg is a huge woman in a big evening dress on the stage. Carl Sandburg has become a part of the American scene, and his long intimacy with Lincoln has made him seem not only a part of the American scene, but a link to the illustrious past. When I rose with the sun, the sun was in the sky, and the stars were in the sky. The ten week session beginning on Wednesday, Sept. 21, from 7 p.m. until 8 p.m. is still open for reservations. For further information the C.Y.O. Program Office at BA, 5-2707 may be called.

Program For Homemakers

For those interested in combining swimming with gym work, the C.Y.O. gymnasium will also be available on Monday and Wednesday evenings. For further information the Program Office at BA, 5-2707 may be called.

Watching The Screen

Las Vegas

By RAY SMITH

A plot to rob five of the world's most famous gambling casinos in Las Vegas of millions is the story on the Paramount Theatre's screen for ADULTS ONLY under the title of "OCEAN'S 11." As many of us are in the same boat, this may be our only chance to get a glimpse of such Hotels (I always like the accent on the first syllable) as the Desert Inn, Sands, Elmhurst, Riviera, and the Sahara.

The stars are really out for this one. Just to mention a few, we have Frank Sinatra, Dean Jagger, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis, Jr. and Joyce Bishop. When you load such a movie with so many stars, there is a danger to drag out the story to give everybody a chance to show off his talents. I think this is the case here. Too many stars have to get before the camera before we get into the meat of the plot. Imagine the headaches of the poor producer and director trying to keep everybody happy.

BANNY OCEAN (Frankie), a gambler and war veteran, calls together ten of his scattered Army buddies to assist in a wholesale heist on New Year's Eve. With no gunplay the job is pulled off with the help of a New Year's Eve note-maker called dynamite. The way they actually execute to "withdraw" the money from the casinos is ingenious.

I bet the owners of those places are checking their fuses more closely these days. Ocean's boys get the dough all right but then complications set in. One of the buddies dies (of natural causes) and big time racketeer
