

Fashions Attracts Geneva CDA

Geneva—An overflow crowd in Lafayette Inn witnessed a fashion show for the benefit of the scholarship fund of Court Annunciation, Catholic Daughters of America.

Several of the members and their daughters modeled the adult and teenage fashions.

STYLES WERE from J. W. Smith Dry Goods Store and Mrs. Barbara Dean was narrator. Mrs. Barbara Millie was chairman of the event.

Douglas Duke entertained with piano selections and provided background music for the fashion show. Winners of special prizes were Carmella Moracco, Mary Powers, Jeanette Quatro and Mrs. James McCusker. Announcement was made of a meeting on Oct. 12 when Dr. George Whitney will be the speaker. He will present a different approach to an historical event.

Lay Missals Not Changed

Lay people will not need new missals when liturgical changes go into effect January 1, 1961. The National Association of Catholic Publishers and Dealers in Church Goods met in Washington and heard Catholic University's Father Frederick McManus say changes affect rank of feast but not the text of missals now in use.

Penn Yan Girl Receives Habit Of Ursuline

Sister Maria Goretti of Christ Crucified, the former Mary Jane Mills and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Mills, 111 Clinton Street, Penn Yan, was received into the Ursuline of Mount Calvary Order at rites held in the Ursuline Motherhouse, Holy Spirit Convent, Belleville, Ill., on August 22, receiving her religious name, the Ursuline habit and white veil.

GRADUATE of St. Michael's Parochial School, Penn Yan, Sister committed daily to DeSales High School, Geneva, for two years before entering the Ursuline community, August 6, 1950. School Heads Address Mt. Carmel Mothers' Unit

Auburn — The Ladies Club of Mt. Carmel High School, Auburn, held its first meeting of the new year on Monday, Sept. 20 at the school. A special welcome was extended to the mothers of freshmen. More than 200 members attended.

The Religious Course, Father began, was the main justification of the existence of a Catholic School and of its policy of educating for eternity as well as for this life. Father went on to explain the importance of handling the adolescent boy or girl with firmness but understanding, especially in their day by day application to study at home.

SINCE COLLEGES have increased their standards of admission, the high school was obliged to impose more work upon the students, and for most students that school policy meant a minimum of three hours study at home. However, without parental supervision of home study, such a policy was doomed to failure.

Lack of the reading habit, Father also pointed out, was disastrous for the student. A student with class knowledge alone was ill-equipped for college and for life itself.

New officers are: Mrs. Rocco M. Alvares, president; Mrs. Charles Marangola, vice-president; Mrs. Harold Weaver, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Schaffer, recording secretary; Mrs. John Allisandrello, financial secretary; Mrs. Alfred Gehring, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bert Clark, publicity chairman; Mrs. Edmond Nagle, program chairman.

MRS. MALVASO introduced Rev. Bartholomew Parsons, O. Carm., Guidance Counselor at Mt. Carmel and Rev. Robert Caruso, O. Carm., Prefect of Discipline.

Plans were made to hold a Purse Shower for the Sisters to purchase items needed for the new convent on Oct. 24 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Nicholas Callendo and Mrs. Carl Abate. A buffet luncheon will be served.

A card party will be held on Nov. 2 at the school under the
