

Priest, Palmyra's Kin Finds Chinese Parish

Inchon, Korea—A small, war-torn hotel here has been converted into a church and social center by a Maryknoll missionary for the Chinese colony of this city.

The urgently-needed mission parish is directed by Father Joseph P. McCormack, M.M., a 67-year-old veteran-China missionary and former prisoner of the Chinese Reds.

The Maryknoller has a brother, Edward, of Palmyra.

BEFORE FATHER McCormack's arrival in Inchon, no Chinese-speaking priest was available here to establish contact with the city's 5,000 Chinese residents, only one of whom was Catholic.

Now, every Sunday approximately 75 people crowd the tiny chapel to meet this "grandfather priest" and learn about God from someone who can preach, instruct and even joke in their own native tongue. Father McCormack is optimistic about the future of his Chinese mission. He expects to baptize 35 by Christmas.

The spunky, Irish-born Maryknoller served 28 years in China before he was arrested by the Communists in 1953. Sentenced to five years in a Shanghai prison, he was released in 1954.

Record Breaking Class Enrolled At Fisher

St. John Fisher College has set its tenth year this fall with a record enrollment of 544 students. The freshman class typifies the rapid growth of the college in its first decade from 10 in the first class in 1951 to 100 in the first class in 1961.

In releasing these figures, Edward N. Weber, the registrar, stated that the present enrollment represents an increase of 12 per cent over that of the 1959-1960 student body, while the freshman class represents a growth of 18 per cent.

This year's enrollment is also marked by an increase in the number of out-of-town students of whom there are about 80. Thirty of these come from towns in the immediate area of Rochester. The remainder includes students from 31 other cities and towns in New York State. Out-of-state students are from Pennsylvania, Ontario, Canada, Formosa, Korea and Germany.

Bonacci-Crupi Wedding Held
Genoa — Miss Marianna E. Crupi, daughter of Patrolman Joseph N. Crupi and Mrs. Crupi, of 278 Castle St., and Sammy Bonacci, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sarafino Bonacci, of 104 E. Elizabeth St., Waterloo, were married Saturday, Oct. 1, in St. Francis de Sales Church.

THE CEREMONY was performed by the Rev. Raymond G. Ringwood, who also celebrated the nuptial Mass. Serving as altar boys were Randy Castellano and Danny Chacón, nephews of the bride.

Miss Conale Tilmont, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Diana Murphy, Patty Lannon and Mrs. John Bird, sister of the bridegroom.

Richard Scull of Waterloo was best man. Ushers were Joseph Bonacci, brother of the bridegroom, Francis Crupi, brother of the bride, and John Bird.

Piehlers Mark Golden Jubilee
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Piehler, 31 Cedar St., observed their 50th wedding anniversary by attending Mass at St. Joseph's Church, Rochester, where they were married in 1910.

Both were born in Germany. Mr. Piehler learned his trade as a blacksmith in that country and practiced it for many years in Rochester.

THE COUPLE has one son, Albert M. Piehler, and two daughters, Mrs. John Mahler and Mrs. William Ives; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A breakfast was held at Sheraton Hotel for relatives and friends.
