Current Plays

By EUPHEMIA WYATT

A THURBER CARNIVAL — Cleverly staged collection of James Thurber's stories, fables and drawings with Mr. Thurber himself and James Ford. Joyful occasion.

BYE, BYE BIRDIE—Bouncing caricature — or is it? — of Rock 'n Roll and teenagers swooning over Konrad Birdie. Chita Rivera is his secretary, Dick Van Dyke, his press agent. Slick, quick and musical.

FIORELLO — Musical picture with music by Jerry Bock. Lyrics by Sheldon Harnick and Jerome Weidman. Directed by George Abbott, it deserves its three awards — Pulitzer, Critics', Tony.

GYPSY — Ethel Merman, as the mother of June Havoc and Gypsy Rose Lee, exploits her little girls quickly in Act I. In Act II, Rose is pushed into a strip tease and raw Musky. Not recommended.

LA PLUME DE MA TANTE — Robert Dhery's engaging company in a revue from Paris which ranges from richest fun to purest taste.

MY FAIR LADY — Still very much alive with almost complete change of cast.

TAKE ME ALONG — Jackie Gleason has made the alcoholic Uncle Syd in O'Neill's AH, WILDERNESS, the central figure around whom revolve Eileen Heckart, Walter Pidgeon and Robert Morse, very good as the boy. All is pleasantly small-townish except a very jewel bullet of the Aubrey Beardsley '90's.

THE HOSTAGE — Brendan Behan's sample of Irish humor is murk; a raffish medley of drama and songs with the songs the best part of it. Fleetings of wit are dismissed by dirt and boredom. What is called a "lodging house" in Dublin, there is the fall of the little girl from the Convent school. Gloria Excelsis jazzed; a trio of prostitutes. It is to be hoped N.Y. run will be shorter than the London one.

THE BEST MAN — Crackling exposition of behind-the-scene politics with Melvyn Douglas and Frank Lovejoy as rather recognizable candidates and Lee Tracy as the ex-president who loves "a good dirty fight." Gore Vidal, the author, evidently means the title to be inside quotation marks.

...THE MIRACLE WORKER — How Anne Sullivan, played by Anne Bancroft, teaches the meaning of language to Helen Keller as a child, played by Patty Duke, is the miracle for every one to see.

Notre Dame Seniors Named By Society

Four seniors from Notre Dame High School have been chosen associate members of the Dramatic Theatre Society, established at Nazareth College. Richard Crowley, Patrick Agan, Judith Mahoney and Alice Pretchl will share in dramatic programs and presentations of the college. Sponsor Martin Townsend was admitted last year.

Associate members may also try out for minor roles in the dramatic performances given at the college.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC — Mme Mary Martin has established the Trapp family von Bond way. Seats now selling for 1961.

THE TENTH MAN — Chayevsky at his ... the drama of the ... Ezri possessed by ... spirit and saved ... nine old men in the ... in Minsola.

TOYS IN THE ATTIC — Tragedy of two devoted spinster sisters who ruin their brother, by Lillian Hellman, as brilliant as it is unwholesome. Finely acted.

THE WORLD OF CARL SANDBURG — With introductions by Norman Corwin, Bette Davis and Leif Erickson with Clark Allen and his guitar interpret Mr. Sandburg's verse and songs and some of his terse ly wise comments on life. More rewarding than most plays.

WEST SIDE STORY — Is back again and the Romeo and Juliet caught between two different gangs is as moving as ever.

OFF BROADWAY

HERE COMES THE CLOWNS — Strong revival of Philip Barry's drama on the problem of evil in which some boring old vaudeville troupers in a bar room discover an answer — FREE WILL.

LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE — Charming amusing "take-off" of the Mooney-Friml operetta with beguiling music ... tion and Mary Bre...

THE BALCONY — Phantasmagoria ... Genet, produced with ... Quintero's best skill ... religious, obscene and impossible.

THE FANTASTICKS — Modern version of Rostand's LES ROMANESQUES, orchestrated with a piano and harp, attractive musical, witty lyrics, unusual staging. Rich in humor and charm.

THE IDIOT — Highly intelligent and moving dramatization of Dostoevsky's great novel sympathetically played by Archie Smith and Kathleen Widdoes.

Reviewed next month — BECKET, TENDERLOIN, LAURETTE.

Watching The Screen

Sick-Sick

by RAY SMITH

Last week a very interesting article appeared in one of the motion picture magazines. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, under the name of its editor, Martin Quigley, Jr. The efforts of this man and many others like him has been to make the movie industry a respected American institution. When anything threatens the ideals that we have the industry should make it, they don't hide their opinions from those who are good of the industry should ... the people in entertainment ... Quigley's recent ... serves our ...

It is rumored that Time is ... article at the convention of the Theatre Owners of America was the current prevalence of many of Hollywood's creative workers with the "sick" picture resulting in a "sick" industry. According to Mr. Quigley the "sick" ... that depict ... situations, sex ... its assorted Secrets of ... sick method suggestiveness and thinly veiled pornography. Continuing in his editorial he says that too many of these practices will have some inevitable result, a dead industry.

I BRING THIS editorial to your attention, since readers to show that there are many (in fact, the majority) of our neighborhood theatre owners, and managers who want good entertainment. They are concerned with being offered trash by Hollywood to throw on their screens. They don't like it at all.

So, you ask — then why do they show it? Well, they have many a dollar invested in their theatres and it may be the choice of showing a certain type of movie or closing down. Others may say, what about theatres that show as a policy only A movies, like the ... in East ... But, ... Yes, if ... and ...

I am just one person expressing my views on movies as can anybody and probably a lot better. This paper accepts these articles according to their good judgment as a possible interest feature with absolutely no financial and personal remuneration given to the author in any way showing that the opinions expressed herein are solely mine. So don't be blaming the COURIER - JOURNAL if I am not infallible (far from it, but).

BUT, BACK AT the ranch, I think people are "sick" for not actively supporting good entertainment. I said this before and will keep saying it. When Walt Disney starts to lose money on some of his pictures, then what do you think Hollywood is going to make? The old tales of just dumping the bad movies is gone as is proved by the movies today. We must SUPPORT good films.

If some objectionable movie comes to your section and you consider it as sound to you, and your family, you'll be justified in speaking out against it. Now, I'm not saying that everyone doesn't have a right, and sometimes an obligation, to condemn evil.

We do. But don't you think, outside the secrecy of the heart, that our reforming words may be a little empty when we didn't do much to help for a better situation. It's a little late to start slamming the barn doors after the horse gallops out. But it isn't too late now to begin building a new barn.

Judge Fritsch, Industry Priest Set On WROC-TV

"Youth Confidential," a new program viewed Sundays from 5:30 to 5:30 p.m. over WROC-TV, Channel 5, this Sunday will feature Children's Court Judge Joseph J. Fritsch as moderator and the Rev. William J. Schifferle, Industry chaplain.

In the new public service program, a panel of students from one of the local high schools interviews a youthful offender who, although heard, remains hidden to the studio and home viewers.

THE WEEKLY NOTE FROM MR. PEPSI

Less than two-hundred years ago, three tiny ships, bearing colonists, sailed out into Atlantic, set out in search of new worlds.

Since that time, this country has grown in unprecedented proportions. It has been — and continues to be — a gallant effort to blend the democratic theories from history with the ever-increasing progress and growth of the U.S.

Our foundations are solid . . . but isn't it up to all of us to perpetuate the name of freedom, honor and industrious perhaps on to find what is best for our country — not only for the present — but for ... to come?
