Senior Slate Elected By Fisher Upperclass

The members of the senior class at Saint John Fisher College held their elections for senior officers on Monday, Oct. 3. The following seniors were elected: Donald J. Macina, president; Vincent G. Wacinar, vice-president; Peter E. MacAdam, secretary; and William R. Montebello, treasurer.

Macina, a mathematics major, has been active in sports throughout his course and is currently Student Director of Athletics, as well as Senior Governor of the Student Board of Governors. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Macina of 49 Albany Street.

THE NEW vice-president of the class is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wacinar of 134 West Street, and is working towards his B.S. degree in Chemistry. Among his extra-curricular activities are the Student Board of Governors as Secretary and as Junior Governor, the Chemistry Club, the Boat Guild, and the Red Cross Blood Honor Unit.

MacAdam is the son of Mrs. Harold R. MacAdam and the late Mr. MacAdam. He lives with his wife, the former Margaret Garner, at 1983 Norton St. After serving with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific, he entered the Accounting Dept. at the College. His other activities include the Senior Counseling Program and intramural football.

The new treasurer served three years as an aerial photographer with the U.S. Marine Corps, and was discharged with the rank of sergeant. His major subject is Accounting, and this year he is the business manager of the college yearbook, "The Herald". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Montebello, and lives with his wife at 257 Clay Avenue.

The new officers were installed for the Mothers' Club at a candlelight ceremony for new officers at the St. Francis Mothers' Club meeting.

Seated in office were: Mrs. Sam Ernani, president; Mrs. Charles Darrow, vice-president; Mrs. Anthony Giannino, secretary; Mrs. Frank Ferraro, treasurer; Mrs. John Guido, corresponding secretary.

COMMENDED FOR past services were Mrs. Anthony Vaglio, vice president; Mrs. Angelo Russo, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Giannino, treasurer; and Mrs. Norman Gull, publicity. Also this room mothers Mesdames Vincent, Donald Riley, Joe Morabito, Mike Milillo, Nicholas Calozzo, John Bizzari, John Helenaki, Mrs. Mario Rossi and Mrs. Guarino Zemma.

A day of recollection will be held every three months by the Mothers' Club. It will include Holy Communion together, breakfast, prayer, devotion and a dinner. A parish-wide advice for the sons is scheduled at the November meeting.

4th Degree Presents Chalice

Solemn Rites Offered For Sister Crescentia

Funeral Mass for Sister M. Crescentia Whelan was offered in Nazareth convent chapel, Pittsford, Oct. 6. Sister Crescentia was teacher for many years in schools of the Diocese of Rochester.

Sister Crescentia who was on the Immaculate Conception School faculty 21 years, died Oct. 4, 1960.

SOLEMN Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Joseph P. Haffey assisted by the Rev. Michael Volpe, deacon and the Rev. William Roche, subdeacon. Rev. Albert H. Schneck was master of ceremonies.

Sister Crescentia also taught in St. Ambrose School from 1938 to 1948 and later in St. Francis Xavier School. Other teaching assignments included St. Francis de Sales, Geneva.

Kastners Mark Golden Jubilee

A family dinner was held last Sunday to mark the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kastner of 4210 Clinton Ave. North.

They were married in St. Michael's church on Oct. 5, 1910, by Rev. Matthias J. Hargather.

The attendants, Miss Irene Strass, sister of Mrs. Kastner and Anthony Kalmbacher, are both living. Mr. Kastner is retired from Yawman & Erbe Mfg. Company. The couple has two children and five grandchildren.

Cenacle Retreat House Lists Various Retreats

Several weekend retreats are planned at the Cenacle Retreat House, 885 East Ave., Rochester, for women of various interests and states of life.

Married women have been given the weekend of November 18-20, and their retreat is to be conducted by Rev. John A. Hughes, S.J.

Young single women are invited to make their retreat under the direction of Rev. James P. Malone, S.J., the weekend of November 11-13.

Business women have their own retreat on October 28-30, to be conducted by Rev. Nicholas Sullivan, S.J., of the faculty of Saint John College. Members of Our Lady of the Cenacle Guild make this retreat, together with other business women interested in a closed retreat.

For other women who do not fit into the categories listed, there are two general retreats scheduled for November 4-8 and November 25-27. Rev. Peter Sheehan, C.S.M., will conduct the first; Rev. John A. Hughes, S.J., will be retreat master for the Thanksgiving weekend. Information and reservations may be obtained at the retreat house: RR 13735.
