

St. Mary's Nurses, Staff To Attend Conventions

Two members of the Junior Class of St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing have been chosen as voting delegates from this area for the Student Nurse Association New York State at its annual convention in New York City, Mary's Hospital School of Nursing will participate in the New York State League for Nursing Convention, to be held Oct. 17-19 in New York City. They are Sister Marie, Director of Nursing, Miss Virginia Krenzer and Miss Jean Strachan.

MISS NANCY HAUGER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hauger of Onondaga Castle, Sister Marie, Director of Nursing, Miss Virginia Krenzer and Miss Jean Strachan, will leave Thursday to join representatives from schools of nursing throughout the state to participate in workshops, discussion groups, and business meetings, the purpose of improving nursing curricula and coordinating nursing education with the professional nursing services.

Purpose of SNANYS, as the association is commonly known, is to prepare the student nurse to strength and maintain her role as a student of professional nursing and to do this, encourage her future potential leadership in the field as a graduate nurse.

Miss Hauger is presently secretary of the Student-Faculty Association at St. Mary's, and Miss Pfeiffer has been school representative to the local organization of SNANYS for the past year.

Three faculty members of St.

THE PROGRAM will include the Annual N. Y. State Education Department Conference on Monday, Oct. 17. Keynote address at the convention will be given by Mr. Charles H. Russell of Teachers' College, Columbia University, who will speak on "The Need for Liberal Education."

College Nuns Take Part In Fund Program
Sister Helen Daniel, president of Nazareth College, and Sister Eva Marie, director of development, met with more than 100 college presidents in New York on Oct. 10 and 11, and participated in the National Corporation Solicitation Day (G Day) planned by the Independent College Funds of America.

The two day program began with a briefing session on Monday afternoon, Oct. 10, in the Hunter College "Playhouse." At the session, the details on the corporation calls were given and assignments made.

The Starlight Roof of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel was the scene of a "Salute Dinner" for the presidents on Monday evening.

VISITS TO the heads of national corporations started at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 11. As a result of the visits, it is hoped that the corporations will make generous contributions to the support of the independent liberal arts colleges.

This important project was one of Sister Helen Daniel's first official assignments since being named president of Nazareth College in August.

HOLY ANGELS GUILD will hold a card party at the Manger Hotel on Oct. 20 at 8:15 p.m. Planning the affair are from left, Miss Josephine Flora, special program; Mrs. Sylvester Zicari, prizes; and Mrs. Edward Pace, refreshments.

Card Party Slated To Aid Holy Angels
Holy Angels Guild's annual card party will be held on Thursday, Oct. 20 at 8:15 p.m. in the ballroom of the Manger Hotel. Proceeds from the card party will go to Holy Angels Home on Winton Road North.

For over a quarter of a century Holy Angels Home has been providing a "Home Away from Home" for girls irrespective of race, creed or color. The financial assistance given the Home by the Guild has made possible many improvements at the Home.

MISS WINIFRED A. KELLY, honorary chairman, extends an invitation to all Guild members and their friends to attend the card party. Miss Helen O'Harrigan is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edward Dickes as co-chairman. Mrs. Robert L. Biebet is chairman of table prizes; door, Mrs. Eric P. Smith.

Enters Capuchins
Gerard Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Brennan, was received into the Capuchin Order at Milton, Mass. on Aug. 31.

Gerard was graduated from St. Boniface School and attended the Capuchin Preparatory Seminary at Garrison, N.Y., before entering the novitiate. He is known in Religion as Frater Quentin.

Nazareth Joins Education Study
Sister Rose Angela, dean of Nazareth College, and Sister Saint Catherine, dean of studies, attended a Voluntary Education Association meeting Monday, Oct. 10, at the Rochester Club.

The Voluntary Education group is made up of members from all educational institutions in the area. Meetings are held four times each year, at which time a paper is presented on some problem or issue pertinent to education. This is followed by a general discussion of the paper.

Invitations have been sent to all of last year's bowlers inviting them to participate again in this year's program.

New members may register for this series of lessons and competition by calling Updike at C.Y.O. BA 5-2707 or by writing to him at 50 Chestnut St.

While these bright youngsters did not reach the status of semifinalists in the 1960-61 Merit Program, they are so outstanding that we wish to single them out for special attention. The semifinalists and commended students together constitute less than three per cent of all high school seniors, and this certainly signifies noteworthy achievement.

"The Letters of Commendation provide tangible recognition of the commended students' high ability. It is our earnest hope that the recipient will continue to strive for high achievement."

Nine Nazareth Seniors Cited For Scholarship
Nine seniors at Nazareth Academy have been cited for outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring. Each student who is endorsed by his school receives a formal Letter of Commendation signed through the facilities of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Sister Agnes Cecilia, the school's principal, has announced that the commended students are: Elizabeth M. Deane, Lynn A. Goldschmidt, Debra M. Klipp, Joanne M. Mele, Judith A. Oplinger, Anne A. Pohl, Karen R. Pratt, Barbara J. Roberts, Jean E. Verno.

JOHN M. STALNAKER, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, stated: "While these bright youngsters did not reach the status of semifinalists in the 1960-61 Merit Program, they are so outstanding that we wish to single them out for special attention.
