Solemn Requiem Held For Sister Claudina

Solemn Funeral Mass for Sister M. Claudina Rourke of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Jo[seph] was offered in Nazareth Convent, East Ave., Pitts[burgh], Friday, Oct. 14.

Sister Claudina died unex[pectedly] in Corpus Christi Con[vent], Princeton, Prince St., Oct. 12.

REQUIEM MASS was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Maney, Chancellor of the Diocese assisted by the Rev. Albert V. Ryan, deacon, and the Rev. Joseph D'Aurizio, subdeacon. Also in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Louis Edelman, and the Reverend Fathers Albert H. Schnacky, John D. Malley, Hugh Brady and Joseph Smith.

Fifth grade pupils from Corpus Christi School formed an honor guard at the Mass.

Sister Claudina was one of a group of young women who came to Rochester from Ireland in 1899 to enter the order.

Her first assignment was as art teacher at the former St. Agnes Institute on Main St. East. After several years she was transferred to St. Stephen's School, Geneva. She returned to Rochester to teach in St. Ambrose's School and later was assigned to Corpus Christi.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews in Ireland. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

THE COURT will hold a baked food sale in the McMahon Shoe Store on Virginia on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Mrs. Raymond Nightingale is chairman of CDA activities for the month of October.

Mrs. Helen R. Wetzel has been elected to fill the office of Lecturer which was left vacant due to the resignation of Mrs. Jas. VanNortwick.

Priest's Father, J. F. Kennedy Requiem Held

Corning — John F. Kennedy of 3 Elm St., retired Corning postmaster and father of the Rev. Maurus Kennedy, O.F.M., treasurer of Sienna College at Loudenville, died at Corning Hospital Tuesday, Oct. 11, 1960.

The funeral was held last Friday morning with prayers at the A. W. Beilby and Son Funeral Home followed by Solemn High Requiem Mass offered in St. Patrick's Church by Mr. Kennedy's son, Father Maurus Kennedy. Deacon of the Mass was the Rev. William Sutherland of Newfane, formerly of Corning, and Fr. Hugo Von Breda of Sienna College as sub-deacon of the Mass.

IN THE Sanctuary were the Rev. William Cannan, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, and the Rev. William Tobin, administrator of the same parish. Also attending the funeral Mass in a group were over 30 friars from Sienna and St. Bonaventure's College.

About 25 employes of the Corning Post Office visited the funeral home Wednesday evening to pay their respects.

The bearers were: Gerald Haley, Floyd Berry and Arthur Doran, post office employes, Howard Wheadon, Paul Tammaro and William Yost.

Father Kennedy officiated at the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery, assisted by Father Sutherland and other visiting clergy.

During his years with Corning Post Office, Mr. Kennedy had executed practically every position in connection with the mail service.

His first experience came as a rural carrier and it was in July, 1903, when he became night clerk. Thirteen years later he was elevated to the post of assistant postmaster.

Mr. Kennedy served as the chief aide to five Postmasters, John S. Kennedy, Harry Pratt, John W. Lynahan, B. W. Wellington and Harrie J. Millspaugh.

Mr. Kennedy and the former Margaret T. James of Coopers Plains, were married June 17, 1908, and to them were born three sons, who with Mrs. Kennedy survive. The sons are, John P. of Corning, James of Frenchtown, N.J. and Fr. Maurus Kennedy O.M.F., treasurer of Sienna College at Loudenville.

Mr. Kennedy was an honorary member of Corning Council, Knights of Columbus and for many years served as its financial secretary. He was a member of St. Patrick's Church and its Holy Name Society, and while his health permitted was an active bowler.

Surviving besides his wife and three sons are: a sister, Mrs. Gerald Fleming of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a brother, Timothy of South Corning; eight grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Nazareth Nurse Voted 'Ideal'

Miss Patricia Smith, a senior at Nazareth College, was chosen as the State Ideal Nurse by vote of the delegates at the state convention of the Student Nurse Association of New York State in New York City. The convention was held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel from Oct. 14 through 17.

Miss Smith had already been chosen as the Ideal Nurse from Area No. 2 of the eleven areas included in the state association. Nazareth, three other colleges, and six three year schools of nursing, comprise the membership for the Genesee Valley area. In New York City, she competed with the candidates from the ten other state areas for this new title.

WHEN THE National League for Nursing holds its convention in Cleveland next spring, Miss Smith will represent New York State as its candidate for the Ideal Student Nurse of the Country.

In addition to representing the area at the State convention, Miss Smith was also nominated for the office of first vice president in the state organization.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Smith of Lewiston, N.Y.

Mary Ann Steve, a sophomore in the nursing department at Nazareth, accompanied Miss Smith to New York and read her biography to the convention delegates before the choice of the Ideal Student Nurse was announced.
