'Compact' Missioners at Pius X

Mission Sunday at St. Pius X Church in suburban Rochester was highlighted by a procession of parish school pupils garbed in the religious habits of missionary priests and nuns. The annual event features the pastor, Rev. Donald Murphy, assigning each 'missioner' to an outpost of the Church's frontier. (Al Piccoli Photo)

Randazzo Elected Head Of Musa Caravan Unit

Philip J. Randazzo of the Rochester Fire Bureau, who resides at 369 Maplewood Avenue, was elected Grand Commander of Musa Caravan No. 25, Order of the Alhambra on Tuesday, Oct. 25, at an election dinner meeting held at Our Lady of Victory Parish Hall, Pleasant St.

Also elected to serve on the Grand Divan for 1960-1961 were the following officers: George R. Powers, vice grand commander; William A. Tatyga, grand scribe; C. Orrin Ochs, scribe of the exchequer; Joseph A. Witzel, grand chamberlain; Frank T. Domenico, master of the oasis; Donald J. Bragg, historiographer; Philip R. Winkler, master of the wardrobe; George E. Bopp, captain of the body guard; Robert Bach, sentinel of the tower; Al Salvaggio, sentinel of the desert and Francis X. Donovan, grand advocate. The newly elected Grand Divan was installed by Clifford B. Sargent, past district commander.

The Rev. Edward P. Callans, SS.CC., pastor of Our Lady of Victory Church, is grand chaplain of the local caravan.

ALSO ELECTED as delegates to the Alhambra convention to be held in Boston next August was Leo V. Davis as representative to the Supreme Divan; Commissioner of Public Safety James F. Butler as alternate to the grand commander and Clifford B. Sargent as alternate to the representative.

As its third project in the Rochester area, on May 22 of this year, Musa Caravan erected a Shrine in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary at St. Mary's Hospital grounds, in recognition of the one hundred years of faithful service to the Diocese by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, in memory of the late Norman A. O'Brien, past Supreme Commander of the national organization.

The local caravan, which was organized on September 4, 1911, will celebrate its olden Jubilee, next year.
