A few weeks ago I had the honor of meeting with his wife, Mrs. Earl Wrightson, who has been instrumental in the creation of a new album called "Midnight Lullaby" recorded by Ray Charles. It's Columbia has decided to release it and should expect a new high run on the charts next in these sales department. Then, with the Ray Charles has employed a very different to him of instruments in addition to his usual big band sound.

The melody started, almost all the way through, by harmonica, the rhythm accompanied by guitar. An organ joins now and then. For color and accent she adds onfifteen jobs reminding me of the pieces of Pan. This music was obviously designed to be background track it is from the former movie production of "Midnight Lullaby."

However, it is pleasant, quiet, restful and an great relief from the usual beats of the day. Ray Charles, incidentally, will appear in concert at the Auditorium Theatre in Rochester November 14.

ANOTHER VERSION of this masterpiece has been recorded by Ray Charles on his own label. Hollywood is responsible for another lovely hand titled "The Autobiography" from the motion picture "The Autobiography of an Ex-Criminal." The film, directed by Louis J. Gasnier, has given us many beautiful themes in the past. Billy Vaughn has recorded this one on "Dot 1881" and it's like this new "liberty." The melody is so melodic, a friendliness and something which makes you want to hum or whistle along.

ANOTHER MOVIE theme which is just starting its way is in the drama "Dark At The Edge Of The Stars." Percy Faith has reentered his one and the combinations of Percy Faith's arrangements and a Max Steiner team should be enough ammunition for all.
