

13 Women Nominated For College 'Who's Who'

Thirteen students at Nazareth College, ten seniors and three juniors, have been nominated for inclusion in the 1960-61 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

THE NOMINATED seniors are Catherine Barrett, Barbara M. Brinnier, Diane R. Christian, Grace T. Corcoran, Nancy Furing, Francine Hart, Susan M. McGinnis, Deirdre McKiernan, Barbara Picciotto, Gail Place, and Rita Stanton. The juniors include Anne Franco, Mary Elizabeth Maybach and Monica McAlpine.

These young women are chosen by vote of faculty and students for nomination to this annual roster of the outstanding students in the country.

Scholarship ability, qualities of leadership, and participation in college activities are the criteria upon which the choice is made. Liberal arts majors, as well as those who have chosen to work in science, or music, are included in the group.

Representatives of such student activities as the Student Council, the Mission group, the resident students' president, and the Sodality, have been named by their teachers and friends for this honor.

Month's Program Planned At St. Andrew's

REV. JOHN CAVANAUGH of the seminary faculty will speak at the parents' meeting Monday, Nov. 7, at 8 p.m.

Rev. Edward Steinkirchner will give a day of recollection to students Thursday, Nov. 10. Jamalabo Abel Briggs, research chemist at Eastman Kodak Co., a native of newly independent Nigeria, will speak to senior students Saturday, Nov. 13.

Joanne Brown Nuptials Held

Addison — The Rev. Leo T. Matuzewski, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony and was the celebrant for the Nuptial Mass which united in marriage Miss Joanne Elizabeth Brown and Joseph William Nobriga, both of Addison, in St. Catherine's Church last Saturday morning.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert C. Brown; the bridegroom's, Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Nobriga. All ate at Addison.

MISS PAULINE Nobriga, the bridegroom's sister, was maid of honor. Miss Phyllis Nobriga and Miss Anne Brown, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

James Kelly Jr. of Addison was best man. Francis Nobriga was usher for his brother. Harold Barton of Addison also acted.

William Wolter Rites Held, Father Of Two Nuns

Funeral services for William N. Wolter of 73 Clifford Avenue, father of two Sisters of St. Joseph, were held at St. Michael's Church Wednesday October 26. Mr. Wolter died Oct. 23, 1960.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Leo J. Mans, assisted by Rev. Daniel V. Hogan, pastor, and Rev. Francis H. Erb, sub-deacon.

Final blessing at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was by Fathers Hogan and Mans.

Mr. Wolter, who was employed at the old Henry Corvally book bindery for 27 years, leaves his wife, Magdalen Magin Wolter, six daughters, Sister Paul Margaret of St. Mary's, and a son, William N. Wolter Jr.

Sister Mary de Paul welcomed the guests and spoke briefly on the aims of the laboratory program. Sister Mary Peter explained the personality test all students took within the past five weeks and made general recommendations on the basis of test interpretations.

FURTHER ANALYSIS of test results was made possible as parents were shown the individual folders of the students by the reading teachers.

Sister Mary Michel, speech therapist, addressed the parents of children in the clinical speech program and held interviews with as many as time permitted.

Two General Retreats Announced At Cenacle

General retreats for women are conducted at the Cenacle Retreat House for Women, 693 East Ave., Rochester, at monthly intervals throughout the year. In November of this year, two general retreats are scheduled for the weekends of Nov. 4-5 and Nov. 25-27.

Retreats of this kind are open to any women, whether they have made many retreats in the past or whether this is their first closed retreat, and regardless of their state in life.

IN THIS WAY, they differ from specialized retreats, such as those restricted to married women, single women, nurses, etc., or the eight day retreat.

On the two November general retreats, each retreatant will have a private room. Seventeen of the private rooms are located in the new wing, recently added to the retreat house. Adoration will take place in the new Adoration Chapel.

Rev. Peter Sheehan, C.S.B. will conduct the retreat of Nov. 4-5. Rev. John A. Hughes, S.J., former rector of the Jesuit Community at Fordham University, will be retreat master for Nov. 25-27. Reservations may be made by mail or by telephoning the retreat house, following 3-6715.
