

Mercy Project To Benefit Missions, Building Fund

Mission Days at Our Lady of Mercy High School are slated for Thursday and Friday, Nov. 10 and 11, according to Sister Mary Judith, moderator of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade.

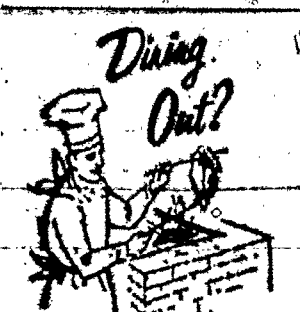

Profits from Thursday's Mission Days will be sent to the 25 missionary groups and projects which the CSMC units are sponsoring. Friday's returns will benefit the Sisters of Mercy Building Fund.

SCHEDULED IN THE Mission Day program are a bazaar, missionary speaker, musical Missions Show, and Spiritual Sacrifice Day.

The bazaar booths, lining the four sides of the gym, will display stuffed animals, religious articles, games, novelties, dream sets, and dolls. Baked goods, and refreshments. The bazaar is open to the public from 7 to 11 p.m. both evenings and from 2 to 5 p.m. Thursday afternoon.

Youth Week Observed At St. Agnes High

This year special stress has been laid on Catholic Youth Week, Oct. 30-Nov. 6 at St. Agnes High School. "Responsible Youth - America's Strength" is 1960's Youth Week theme.

National Catholic Youth by the Student Council representative. A sermon by school chaplain, the Rev. John LeVeque, further developed the theme, and the school began its observance with the school's traditional ceremony to honor Christ the King.

This dedication of every organization and individual of the school was followed by 30-second spot announcements every day of the week over the public address system. These consisted of brief reminders of the privileges and duty of individual freedom and responsibility.

A special editorial directed to Catholic youth by news columnist Victor Riesel was posted in every homeroom and read aloud.
