Leader To Be Honored, Selma Mission Aided

Seneca Falls—The St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society will hold their Annual Banquet at the Guild Hotel, Nov. 7 at 8:30 p.m. in the Heritage Room. The dinner will honor the outgoing president of two years, Mrs. Anthony Barbieri and introduce the new president, Miss Louise Cafolla.

Guest speaker will be a local boy who is at present time the assistant pastor at St. Francis Xavier Church of Rochester and also the Diocesan Director of the Parish Societies in the Rochester Diocese, Rev. Joseph Beattini.

Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and assistant pastor Rev. James Malley will be guests of the society. Mrs. Carmen Martello, chairman of the banquet promises an enjoyable evening for all who wish to attend. Each member may ask a guest.

Entertainment will also be furnished, and this year will include two soloists, Miss Rosanne Vedora of Seneca Falls and Mrs. Frank Seelye of Geneva.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Martello, LO 8-8333. If you have not been contacted by the committee.

Mission Gifts Asked

Seneca Falls—St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society met Monday evening in the school hall with Miss Louise Cafolla, president presiding.

Gifts will be taken for the Selma Mission at the November meeting. Each member is asked to bring a gift for either a boy or girl. Each package should be marked boy or girl and the age the gift is for. Pencils, tablets, soap, ball point pens and toys will also be welcomed.

Anyone wishing to send a package may do so by contacting Miss Cafolla, LO 8-8197. A committee has been appointed which will gladly pick up the packages.

Father O'Beirne spoke briefly on the intended date of the breaking of ground for the new St. Patrick's school addition.

Geneva CDA Group Hears DeSales Chaplain

Geneva—"The great danger of today's world is the danger of secularism... the separating of ideas of religion from everyday life."
The Rev. Richard A. Hart, chaplain of De Sales High School, expressed this opinion at the annual banquet of Court Annunciation, Catholic Daughters of America, in the American Legion Home.

He emphasized that "the great danger of man today is his failure to center his life in God."
GRAND REGENT Mrs. Loretta Linehan greeted members and guests and then introduced Mrs. Barbara Deane, toastmistress. She explained that the court always holds the annual banquet in October since it is the month honoring Our Lady of the Rosary.
She emphasized the value of the rosary as an answer to both spiritual and temporal needs.
She introduced the Rt. Rev. Magr. Edward K. Ball, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, who called attention to the mission for non-Catholics to be held in the church from Nov. 8-10.
It is to be conducted by the Rev. Edward Whitley of the Paulist Order. Monsignor Ball urged the members to invite non-Catholic friends to the mission services. He also declared that there are no blessings comparable to the faith, and that members have an obligation to spread the gospel here as in foreign countries.
MRS. MARY SOUDERS, of Mrs. Margaret Gannon and Mrs. Zita Linehan were co-chairmen of the annual banquet, represented the District.
