22 Squires Invested In Elmira KC Rite

In a ceremony held last Sunday afternoon, 22 young men of high school age were invested in the Monsignor William J. Brien Circle 1175, Columbian Squires.

Officers of the Circle were in charge of the ceremonial that was held in Columbus Center.

ELMIRA COUNCIL, Knights of Columbus, sponsors of the group was represented by Grand Knight Willis I. Larrabee and a large delegation of Council members.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, the Squires marched to St. John's church for Mass and Communion at the 5 p.m. Mass.

An investiture banquet, held in St. John's church hall climaxed the days activities.

Rev. William L. Reed, Father Prior congratulated the group and urged their active support of the Squires program. James Flynn, recently appointed head basketball coach at Notre Dame high school shared the speaking program.

Precious Blood Invocation Added To Divine Praises

Vatican City — (NC) — The Holy See has issued a decree adding an invocation in praise of the precious Blood of Christ to the Divine Praises, which are normally recited after Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites was approved by Pope John XXIII October 12. It has now been made public by Father Herbert Linenberger, C.PP.S., Superior General of the Congregation of the Precious Blood, which requested the decree.

THE NEW INVOCATION is the first change in the Divine Praises since the insertion of the words "Blessed be her glorious Assumption" among the praises of the Blessed Virgin Mary. That addition was made in 1953, three years after Pope Pius XII declared Mary's bodily assumption into heaven a dogma of the Church.

With the new addition, the Divine Praises are as follows:

Blessed be God.

Blessed be His Holy Name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true and true Man.

Blessed be the name of Jesus.

Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart.

Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Blessed be his Most Precious Blood.

Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be her Holy and Immaculate Conception.

Blessed be her glorious Assumption.

Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.

Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse.

Blessed be God in His angels and in His saints.

Steuben Deanery Meets At St. Mary's, Bath

Bath—The Steuben Deanery Meeting of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women was held on Thursday, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m. at St. Mary's Rectory, Bath.

The Rev. William Hickey of Hornell, moderator, opened the meeting and Mrs. Frank Hornbeck of Hornell, Council Secretary, acted as chairman in the absence of the president. The Rev. John F. O'Malley, pastor of St. Mary's and Mrs. Andrew Hopiak, Rosary and Altar Society President, welcomed representatives from Cohocton, Hornell and Bath.

Committee Chairmen reported on the workshops attended at the Rochester Conference. Guest speaker, Miss Josephine FitzGerald of Hornell, Diocesan Chairman of the Foreign Relief Committee, presented some of the world-wide programs of the Catholic Relief Services Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

MADONNA PLAN — which provides maternity clinics, medical care for mothers and babies the family. This program is carried out on every continent.

Also the "Feed the Family" project which supplies food and food supplements to native diets in many parts of the world. Samples of these foods were displayed as part of her exhibit.

China Dolls made in Hong Kong by refugees who have no other source of support were also a part of the exhibit.

Miss FitzGerald exhibited samples of layettes and other children's clothing which are collected and sent to the Pope's Storeroom to be given out from the Vatican.

THE NEED for medical supplies in Africa by missionaries was discussed and a contribution was voted for this worthy project. Contributions were also sent to the "Feed the Family Project."

Philadelphia—(NC)—St. Joseph's College announced its evening division has achieved a record enrollment of 1,086 students for an eight-week summer session.

Prelate, Victim of Reds, Dies In Czech Prison

Vatican City — (NC) — The Vatican Secretariat of State has received confirmation of the death of Bishop Peter Pavel Gojdic of Presov last July in a communist prison in Czechoslovakia.

The 72-year-old Byzantine Rite Bishop was reputed to have been a stigmatic. He had been in jail since 1950, a year before he was sentenced to life imprisonment by a communist court on charges of "treason."

In 1950, when Presov counted 321,000 Eastern Rite Catholics and 341 priests, it was marked for liquidation by the communist regime.

THE ORTHODOX archbishop, reportedly acting under orders from Moscow, asked and got a government decree severing the diocese from communion with the Holy See and uniting it to the Russian Orthodox Church.

Bishop Gojdic, confined for months in the Leopoldov prison, was tried in Bratislava in January, 1951, and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Later reports said the Bishop had received the stigmata—the imprint of the wounds of Christ.

Auxiliaries

Washington — (NC) — Pope John has named two Chicago priests to serve as auxiliary bishops to Cardinal Meyer of Chicago.

Msgr. Aloysius J. Wycisio is named titular bishop of Stadia and Msgr. Cletus F. O'Donnell is named titular bishop of Abritum.
