Class Of '63 Elects Slate At St. Mary's

A lively campaign with three major "parties" concluding ended recently at St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, when the freshman class went to the polls to select class officers for the year.

The three parties, each having nominated a slate of candidates and party chairman, conducted rallies and covered the school corridors and locker rooms with campaign stickers, posters, and "platform" promises.

CHOSSEN TO LEAD the class of 1963 were Merelle Burnham of Cortland, president; Gladys Brown, Erie, Pa., vice president; Mrs. Lydia Conroy, Utica; Barbara McHugh, Rochester, treasurer; Rita Wiley, Rochester, and Anna Dori, Cortland, class historians.

Although freshmen will not receive their caps as a class until January, they are already participating members of student government at St. Mary's.

Catholic Press School Opens

Madrid — (RNS) — A school of journalism for the training of Catholic newspapermen was formally inaugurated here by Bishop Pedro Carter Cuneo of Huila. Enrolled for the initial courses were 18 men and 13 women, all university graduates.

The bishop stressed that the function of the Catholic press was not merely to deal with "confessional subjects—religious art, etc." but with everyday themes and problems, giving them a "Christian orientation."
