

17 Schools Participate In Orchestra Festival

An Instrumental Orchestra and interested children formed a Festival was held at Blessed Sacrament Auditorium on Friday, Nov. 11. Parents, teachers

Over two hundred fifty pupils from seventeen Catholic elementary schools staffed by the Sisters of St. Joseph, participated in the program.

SEVERAL SCHOOLS combined talent in order to secure a sizeable group. Each orchestra or band was limited to three musical selections which ranged in difficulty from simple folk tunes to an Andante from a Haydn Symphony.

The groups representing the diocesan schools performed in the following order: St. Ambrose and Christ the King Orchestra, Blessed Sacrament Orchestra, St. Ann and Our Lady of Lourdes Orchestra, Auburn Interscholastic Orchestra, Nazareth Hall Cadet Band, St. Jerome Orchestra, St. Patrick's Glee Club, Violin Trio, St. John and Mother of Sorrows Orchestra, Holy Rosary Orchestra, and St. Monica's Orchestra.

Meeting Listed By Falls Group
Seneca Falls - The St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society will hold their regular meeting Monday, Nov. 21, at 2 p.m. in the school hall. Miss Louise Catalina, president, will preside.

All members are asked to bring their gift for the St. Patrick's Missions. Gifts should be marked boy or girl and the gift is for the Christmas party. Mrs. Charlotte Barbi will be the chairman of the social to follow the meeting.

Vocation Talk Heard By Geneva CDA Court

Geneva - Court Annunciatum, 1, 1921, Mrs. Barbara Cathline Daughters of America, heard a talk on "Vocations" at their recent meeting in St. Stephen's hall.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Bernard Carges, of St. Stephen's parish, who showed and commented on slides of Seminary life from the time a candidate enters until his ordination.

FATHER CARGES asked the members to bend every effort, particularly through prayer, to stimulate vocations. He emphasized that children learn religion and respect chiefly through the example of their parents.

The court will hold a hayride at 7 p.m. Nov. 28. A telephone committee is contacting the members on reservations. The resignation of Mrs. Doris Tracy, historian, was presented and will be effective 1/1/52.

Memorial Mass
Rev. William Shannon, chaplain of Nazareth College, celebrated a Mass for the deceased faculty members and students of the college at Alma Mater Chapel on Wednesday afternoon at four-ten p.m. The Mass was a part of the college observance of November as the month of the Holy Soul.
