Third Order Of Saint Francis

by Fr. John McQuirk, T.O.M.

Part III

Origin of the Third Order

St. Francis of Assisi was of life in which God had placed... us. This married persons and... the into a decadent society. So... great was the impression form-... ed by his example and his teach-... ing that men and women of all... ages and stations in life flock-... ed to him in their desire to... live in his spirit.

St. Francis had already found... the Third Order which today... has more than 44,000... members in the United States... and is spreading rapidly... throughout the world. Today it... is divided into two branches:... the Third Order Regular with... more than 60,000 members who... live a community life under... vows, and the Third Order... Secular, composed of those who... live in the world according to... the ideals of St. Francis, but... not bound by vows; their pres-... ent number is about 4,000,000.

DOWN THROUGH the ages... men and women in all walks... of life, from kings to peasants... have seen in the Third Order... Secular of St. Francis an ideal... to follow, "a pass to Heaven."... To mention a few of its mem-... bers: St. Louis of France, St... Ferdinand of Spain, St. Elma-... rick of Hungary, St. Alexis... and St. Ignace, St. John of... Arc, St. Vincent de Paul, and... the Cure of Ars; illustrious lay-... men such as Dante, Raphael,... Giotto and Galileo, Gounod, Ce-... cambrus, Francis Thompson and... countless others, many of them... well known to the world, more... of them known only to God.
