Henry Albert Requiem Offered By Priest-Son

Funeral Mass for Henry M. Albert Sr. was offered by his son, Chaplain Major John F. Albert, home from Okinawa, in Our Lady of Mercy Church, Greece, Monday, Nov. 21.

Mr. Albert, 78, who retired in 1949 after 43 years with the New York Central Railroad, died Thursday, Nov. 17, 1960, at St. Mary's Hospital.

Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence Casey imparted the Absolution at the church. Assisting in the Mass were the Rev. John S. Whalen, deacon and the Rev. John Philippe, a nephew, sub-deacon. John Boveral, grandson, served at the altar.

Among priests attending were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Dennis W. Hickey, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles V. Boyle and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard K. Burns.

A NATIVE OF Avon, Mr. Albert started his railroading career at 16. Since his retirement he has been woodworking as a hobby. He built or rebuilt altars for Our Lady of Mercy church and school of which he was a trustee. He was a member of the church's Holy Name Society.

Since the death of his wife in 1956, Mr. Albert had lived with a daughter, Mrs. Robert Solan, 29 Armstrong Road, Greece.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Boveral and Mrs. Solan; four sons, Henry M., Lt. Col. George E. Albert, U.S. Army of Fort Benning, Ga.; Father Albert, a priest of the Diocese of Rochester and William A., two brothers, Charles and John; 22 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Father Albert gave the blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Arrangements by Father Whalen. Arrangements by Thomas Funeral Chapel.
