Parish Sodality Union Sets Dance At Sheraton

"Our Queen's Ball," the fifth annual dance of the Rochester Parish Sodality Union will be held on Friday, Nov. 2 at the Sheraton Hotel from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Len Lawley's orchestra will furnish the music for the semi-formal dance.

Proceeds will be used to promote the parish sodalities in the diocese. Tickets are $3.00 per couple.

BISHOP KEARNEY heads the list of patrons which includes many of the directors and form-presidents. Michael Downs and Barbara Lismon are co-chairmen.

They are being assisted by representatives in the schools

Kodak Offers Contest Info

Information teenage photo enthusiasts will want to know in order to enter the 1961 Kodak High School Photo Awards is contained in three brochures now being offered to them free of charge by Kodak.

The brochures also are available to schools for distribution to interested students.

They include: "Contest Rules," an illustrated leaflet of special tips on photographic techniques; the 1960 catalog of prize-winning pictures; and the rules folder of guides for entering the year's competition.

THE AWARDS, which have been placed on the Approved List of National Contests and Activities for 1960-1961 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals, offers $300 in awards totaling $11,750.

Commenting on the Awards, Rt. Rev. McGr. F. G. Hoch, Department of Education, National Catholic Welfare Conference, stated that "The Department feels that worthwhile contests for young people should be encouraged. These contests in mature understanding depends upon their being able to face many contests of all kinds each day, to win some and graciously, to lose others without rancor."

and in the parishes where there are Sodalties.

The high point of the dance will come with the crowning of the status of Our Lady by the king and queen who will be chosen from those attending.

136 Attend CDA Banquet In Ovid

Ovid — Thirty-seventh banquet of Court St. Elizabeth 335, Catholic Daughters of America attracted 136 guests and members to the Franklin House on Nov. 17.

Guest speakers included Very Rev. McGr. Joseph J. Sullivan, pastor of St. Michael's Church, Penn Yan and St. Andrew's, Dundee; the Rev. Francis Harding, court chaplain and the Rev. Otto J. Vogt, assistant pastor, St. Patrick's, Elmira.

MONSIGNOR SULLIVAN, former pastor here, told of events during his eight years in Italy. He described the blessings of the homes and colorful processions through the towns that are so much a part of Italian life.

FATHER VOGT talked about customs in various countries in the observance of Feast Days and told of special preparation of the types of food served.

Father Harding thanked co-chairmen, Mrs. Arthur Vincent and Mrs. Richard Weber and committees for work on the banquet.

Rev. Harold Higgins, O.F.M., Cap. gave the invocation. Mrs. William Chalm, grand regent welcomed the guests. Miss Agnes McCrane, toastmistress, presented Mrs. Mary Durkin, district deputy, from Waterloo who outlined the role of the Catholic Daughters in church work and charities.

Entertainment was furnished by Hibernians from Auburn.
