Ladies Of Charity Assembly

Members and guests of the Ladies of Charity, Elmira, who attended the General Assembly Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Dunn Memorial participated in a Memorial Service held in the chapel for deceased members.

Registering members (above) are: (seated) Mrs. Charles L. Bowers and Mrs. Angelo Luceri; (standing) Mrs. Francis Lini, general chairman and Miss Mary Washburn, a guest.

Following was a panel discussion "It Could Be You," held in the auditorium. The panelists, Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. James Walsh, Mrs. Mary McDonald, Mrs. Joseph Spiegall and Mrs. John McCormack.

They described the work of the Ladies of Charity and the answers to questions asked from the guests and members. A tea concluded the afternoon program.

Miss Josephine Fitzgerald, chairman, discussed the purpose and function of the committee in relation to the societies and clubs affiliated with the National Council of Catholic Women.

She said specific activities of the committee include membership drives, program coordination, leadership training and hospitality.

She also defined the role of local organizations in their affiliation with the National Council of Catholic Women, stressing the importance of a well-balanced program.

REV. WILLIAM H. Hickey, spiritual director for the council and executive chairman of the Thanksgiving used clothing collection in the Hornell area, spoke briefly on arrangements for sorting and packing the clothing for shipment at St. Ann's School next Friday.

Mrs. J. Gerald Griffin, chairman of spiritual development, announced that members of the St. Ann No. 194 Catholic Daughters of America will record recitation of the Rosary for radio broadcasting.

Plans for a book fair and tea in January were announced by Mrs. George Husong, chairman of libraries and literature.

Mrs. Humbert Solo reported on the dedication of five chapel altars at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D. C.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Raymond Moretti, president, and refreshments were served by members of the public relations committee.

Representatives were present from Bath, Cohocton and Hornell.

Third Order Secular Of Saint Francis

By Fr. John McGulick, T.O.R.

Part III

Origin of the Third Order

St. Francis of Assisi was the first Order which today agreed to draw up a rule. It was raised up by God to infuse new numbers more than 40,000 they wished, a rule of life into a decadent society. So priests and brothers, it, in the great was the impression form—three branches: Friars Minor, Friars Capuchin, and Friars of life in which God had placed ages and stations in life flocked. He had also established the Second Order known single, young and old, while after him in their desire to join his ranks. It was in 1221, as the Poor Clares after the co- that they should do penance for the Order, St. Clare of Assisi, their sins and return to the ideals of the Gospel, that his lead a life of prayer and penance. "What must we do to be saved?"

St. Francis had already founded the Third Order which today agreed to draw up a rule.
