Tours, Projects Added To St. Agnes Class Study

To supplement the text book lessons with a corresponding practical experience a series of co-curricular activities took place during this past month at St. Agnes High School.

A senior Sociology class and its moderator, Sr. Elaine Therese, visited St. Joseph's Villa and the Genesee Settlement House, both elements of the Catholic Charities, to see social work in action. Sister Maureen explained to the students the purpose of the Villa's work and the programs offered there. This lecture was followed by a tour through two of the cottages, the infirmary and the grounds.

At the Settlement House, Miss Mary Hennett told the group about the House's origin after World War I and the present work centered on families. The girls were able to see some of the classes in parenting, crafts, cooking and sports.

MR. STEPHEN WEBER and Myron Carril of the Astronomy Club of Rochester brought slides and telescopes to the school so that students could view the firmament.

Those students who had participated in the three-week missionary course in liturgy planned by the St. Agnes Resource Club, a branch of Theta, now Wegman's Alliance Building on Reedy Avenue. The group, affiliated with the Future Business Leaders of America, includes on its yearly roster a trip to Wall Street, and visits to the Corning Glass and Stromer's offices.

ADDRESSING 7th Sister Therese Daniel, head of the Business Department, these hopes present the girls to study the types of machinery employed and the various duties required for different positions, along with the educational requirements for them. Details for this tour are being arranged by seniors Mary Lou Richardson, president of the club, and Gail Wegman.

St. Rosa Student Elevator, Pickup By 'Who's Who'

William J. Creighton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery J. Creighton of the Jeremiah Hill Road, Elmira, has been selected to appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." He is a Senior Journalism Major at St. Bonaventure University.

Creighton was one of 20 St. Bonaventure students selected for the honor on the basis of academic standing and campus leadership, the Rev. Eugene Hoehn, O.F.M., Director of Student Activities at St. Bonaventure announced.

In general an editor of the [illegible] first Junior to be named to that post in a number of years, Creighton also was News Editor of The Bona Venture in 1959.

As other activities include membership in the Third Order of St. Francis, the Theology Club of the Catholic Students' Activity Council, and the Finger Lakes Club. He was Secretary of both the Finger Lakes Club and the International Relations Club in his Sophomore year.

Creighton is a 1957 graduate of Notre Dame High School, Elmira.

Aquinas Ends Banner Year

Congratulations are due to the fine Aquinas team that compiled a 7-1 record. The quality of the team was enhanced by previous of scouts representing many colleges throughout the country.

It was also general this Fall that a good Aquinas team will be the winning memento, Army's and the crowds for their games. Good luck was ended by the Red-Blue fans got their money's [illegible] worth by seeing one of the most exciting and best played games of the season when North Catholic edged with the Little Irish. This game marked the only Aquinas defeat, 12-13.

Another special was reserved for the second half of their Thanksgiving Day game before a many previous crowd of 10,000 when the Irish opened up with 4 T.D.'s to win handily.

This last game was the finale for 17 seniors on the Aquinas squad. Among the departing seniors were backers Riley and Jennifer, cornerbacks Gerald Cole and Coleman, and Gary Johnson and center Bob Corcoran, a real "workhorse" on defense. The starting backfield included three seniors. Quarterback Bob Catchpo (who was particularly adept on sprintouts), halfback Lambert and Fullback Tarcano, a brilliant runner, who scored 15 touchdowns this season.

Now all the material graduates as second key positions this year will return. Pete Corviello, a fine halfback, as a junior will Conte and Charlie Ann, also juniors, Linebackers Steve Chamberlain and Jack Quarles will also be back. The surface should help form an offense line them in 1962.

The Bobbies counted to a 27 point lead in the first half on the running of Joe Bellino and the passing of Hal Spencer and others being on penalty against a younger Army squadron to remain a 27-22 decision. It was Bellino Army's great halfback, who intercepted a pass on the goal line and ran it back 45 yards and out of danger with only 22 seconds to play.

The consensus crowd of 102,000 saw Navy surprise and build a lead in the first half as Bobby Ann went 4 yards for a score. Keliher kicked a field goal and Spencer passed 32 yards to Joe Lopez for another score. In the second half, as expected Army's team started faster on short plunges by fullback Bachelor.

Catholic Youth Wins 4 in Row

Sacred Heart Cathedral Grammar School basketball team won its fourth straight game of this season by defeating St. Cecelia School, 35-13 in a CYO League game at Cathedral Gym. Civic Center Court, last Sunday.

George Pierson and John Bradley led the winners scoring 23 and 14 points respectively. The victory gives Sacred Heart a flow your record of 4-0-0.

KAMALINA HENDRICKS

Miss Junior Unit To Entertain Foreign Youth

The Frances Hinton Unit of Nazareth College is again planning a Christmas party to entertain international students arriving in Rochester, on Saturday, Dec. 16, at the College. Since 1955, Nazareth has sponsored this informal get-together during the Christmas season.

VARIOUS TYPES of entertainment have been presented during the years, including the memorable and delightful ceremonial tea service demonstrated last Christmas by Yasuko Kimura, a Japanese student from Tokyo, who is studying at Nazareth.

According to Miss Ann Dayton, chairman of the party, the entertainment this year will be different. Instead of comparing the Christmas customs of various lands, American and foreign students at Nazareth will present charades, and a group of singers, to be followed by a general dance.

Miss Karolina Szolodnisch is chairman of invitations for this affair.

Auxiliaries Of The K. of C.

Social meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of Columbus, Rochester Council, will be held Dec. 19, Miss Frank Hall, 2 Chilton Park, for the annual Christmas party. The Lighthouse Choral Group will entertain. Gifts for the Pope's Warehouse — articles of clothing for children up to three years — will be received.
