By LOUISE WILSON

LOUISE WILSON is heard daily, Monday through Friday, on "Woman's World" at 10:05 a.m. on Radio Station WJAM.

The idea of Christmas in an envelope is no new-fangled fashion. It began over 150 years ago. Henry Cole of London asked an artist friend to design a card. ...

While Christmas cards in the early years weren't popular, the weary postman in modern times knows well how times have changed. ...

THERE ARE light hearted g e b t i a g a. 100. A so-called "Christmas kid" comes equipped with a pig of mischief and a supply of cleansing tissue. ...

This weekend will surely be the peak of the Christmas card mailing season. To make sure your cards get to their destination, postal authorities recommend a four-cent stamp. ...

Talk It Over

Good Looks

By ANNE CULLEN

Dear Miss Cullen,
What do you have to say about a girl who leaves you because you're not as good looking as another fellow? ...

Not So Good Looking:
You seem convinced the only reason your girlfriend dropped you was because she preferred a more handsome Joe. ...

Dear Miss Cullen:
Not if you are a gentleman. One evening, after all, is soon over, and that evening you have agreed to spend in the girl's company. ...

Dear Miss Cullen:
During the Christmas vacation our family is going to New York for the first time. ...

Dear Veronica:
Formal attire was once "must" for an evening in the theatre; however, this is no longer true and Broadway audiences now include many women in attractive street dresses. ...

Dear Miss Cullen:
You don't believe it? Why print it?

MAKE A GIFT TREE: either a real or artificial one to sit on the coffee table. The delightful gift on it with ribbon. ...

MAKE RIBBON CHIMES: Cut a semi-circle of ribbon, fold in half on an angle, and stick to back of flower for the leaf. ...

TO MAKE RIBBON CHIMES: Cut a semi-circle of ribbon, fold in half on an angle, and stick to back of flower for the leaf. ...

Yes, it's the season to be jolly. It's the season to have fun. To send greetings and mean them. To choose gifts with a special meaning. ...

Goodness knows, as Vicar General as Auxiliary Bishop of local events, of his problems a larger church, as pastor of a big parish the multiplicity of his duties are beyond our comprehension. ...

When our Mary was confined to bed with a back ailment a couple of years ago, Bishop McNamara was one of her first visitors - climbing our stairs front steps in spite of his hoarse condition. ...

Whoever was in charge of arrangements must have known Bishop McNamara well. For, in addition to the pomp and ceremony accompanying the funeral, he never neglected a friend. ...

Often we would visit him just because we wanted to be in his children's - "I want your quiet presence, stopping by during Christmas or Easter holidays. ...

Those you will always have, Bishop McNamara.
