Last Minute Emergencies

Courier Journal readers have made a "very impressive" response to the Catholic Charities appeal to provide Christmas baskets for the poor.

Father Donald Malachy said over 500 needy families will be given food, clothes and toys as a result of contributions sent him.

"There are always last minute emergencies," he said and emphasized, "It's still not too late if you want to make a donation."

Send your contribution to: Catholic Charities Christmas Fund, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester 4.

Here's what you do on Christmas

You keep waking up all night because you might miss something.
You get up early in the morning because your mother and father might oversleep until six-thirty or seven.
You dive under the Christmas tree and open presents, and grownups say "Oh, you shouldn't have done it" and "Ah, just what I wanted."
You close your eyes when you pray in church, so you can see the Little Boy and the crib and the shepherds.
You squirm a lot in church, because the music is beautiful and it makes you want to fly.

Goodness and hope are on earth. They reach for us with small, pudgy hands and look at us with wide young eyes, full of wonder and love.
Merriest greetings to all our friends.
