Corpus Christi Crib Blessed

CORPUS CHRISTI SCHOOL CHILDREN join with parish administrator Monsignor John E. Maney in blessing rite on parish lawn. Following the formal blessing of the crib, youngsters offered a program of Christmas carols.

Brother Thomas Makes Profession

Brother Thomas Jacublak made his vows of obedience, stability and conversion of life at the midnight Mass on Christmas Eve at the Benedictine Monastery at Mt. Saviour, Elmira. The Rev. Father Damasus Winten, prior, received Brother Thomas' solemn profession at the offertory of the Mass.

After he signed the profession chart and had shown it to each of the solemnly professed members of the community, it was placed on the altar and remained there during the Mass. At the end of the Mass the chart was placed in the monastery records.

DC Displays Yule Posters

The Rochester Poster Advertising Company and the Holy Name of Mary Society of the Immaculate Conception Church presented the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women with three large billboard posters carrying the theme "Keep Christ in Christmas." The posters are displayed at the following places: Broad Street west of Elbridge Street, facing east; Franklin Street south of Cumberland Street, at North Clinton Avenue, on the corner of Clifford Avenue.

THIS YEAR again at Monroe County Airport an outdoor crib graces the entrance to the building. The DCWG Council also joined the Rochester Public Library their indoor crib which was displayed at a branch at Norton and Hudson streets.

The Christmas project of the DCWG comes under the Spiritual Development Committee headed by Mrs. William B. Noonan, 212 Church St., Newark.

Employees Honored At Party

Annual Dinner Held By Ithaca Nurses Group

Ithaca — The annual Christmas dinner of the Ithaca Chapter of Catholic Nurses was held at the Ithaca Hotel Tuesday evening with 21 members present.

The Rev. Neil Goodman, moderator for the nurses, was for the Mission Helpers of the Poor of honor and spoke briefly. Sacred Heart to keep God on "The True Meaning of needy families in the Ithaca Christmas." Prior to his assignment to the Immaculate Conception Parish, Father did some work with the deaf children in Rochester. He portrayed "Silent Night" in sign language.

Miss Maureen Sprague was elected President of the Ithaca chapter, succeeding Mrs. Constance Congers and Miss Helen Burns. Under the direction of Jack Schultz and his accompanist, Mrs. Jack Burns, Christmas carols were sung by all. New officers will be active for the tradition of gift-giving, the term 1961-1962.

Sister Thomasetta Rites Offered At Motherhouse

Funeral Mass for Sister M. Thomasetta Longmire of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was offered in Nazareth Convent Chapel, Pittsford, Wednesday, Dec. 28.

Sister Thomasetta died Saturday, Dec. 24, 1960 in Nazareth Convent after a long illness. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

SOLEMN REQUIEM Mass was celebrated by the Rev. John R. Whitley, C.S.B. assisted by the Rev. John Phillips, deacon and the Rev. William H. Roche, subdeacon. Rev. William H. Shannon was master of ceremonies. Also in the Sanctuary was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Louis Dederstadt — Resident of this medieval town in the approaches to the Harz Mountains found a novel way of extending Christmas greeting to the people of Ecklingerode in a number of dioceses.

Sister Thomasetta entered the Sisters of St. Joseph community in 1913. She taught in Nazareth Hall for several years and in a number of dioceses schools, including Holy Apostles, Rochester and St. John Dederstadt, Xanthi, Greece.

Surviving are a brother, John, over the quiet countryside, Shortsville; a six-church bells in Ecklingerode, Mrs. Edward McAllister began pealing in answer.
