

Radio Beams Christmas To Red Lands

New York — (RNS) — Radio Free Europe beamed an extensive schedule of Christmas season programming — featuring Protestant, Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox services and other special broadcasts for people behind the Iron Curtain.

The schedule began with a direct transmission of Pope John XXIII's Christmas message from the Vatican, followed by translations for the Communist-controlled countries of Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Bulgaria and Romania.

Using 28 powerful transmitters, Radio Free Europe carried several hours of Christmas broadcasts daily. Programs included Catholic Masses, Protestant services, Orthodox Liturgies, religious music, carols, Christmas plays and stories, special messages from leading American clergymen, and Christmas celebrations throughout the world.

In addition, several thousand personal greetings from East European refugees in the U.S., Western Europe and elsewhere in the free world were radioed to their families still behind the Iron Curtain.

Student Officers Resign

Religious Clubs Banned

Rutherford, N.J. — (NC) — each campus, such clubs should be organized and meet in the gymnasium, not on campus. A ban on the organization of religious clubs on the campus was among grievances which led 28 of the 33-member student council at Fairleigh Dickinson University to resign.

The threat of expulsion has been used to keep students from attempting to defy the ban within walking distances of campus. A Newman Club has been organized and meet in the gymnasium, not on campus. A ban on the organization of religious clubs on the campus was among grievances which led 28 of the 33-member student council at Fairleigh Dickinson University to resign.

It has been Sammartino's position that the formation of such clubs on campus — the university has day-long centers in Rutherford and Teaneck and a hearing campus in Madison — would have a divisive effect among the students.

Ike Thanks Church Aid

Augusta — (RNS) — President Eisenhower has forwarded a letter of thanks to Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, for the prelate's $10,000 contribution for aid to Cuban refugees in the United States.

In the letter, released by the temporary White House here, the President said he deeply appreciated the Cardinal's "very generous contribution toward the efforts which America is making to deal adequately with the plight of these thousands of Cubans who have fled to our shores to escape oppression."

The President said he had learned of the "inspiring work" done by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Miami under Bishop Coleman F. Carroll for the Cuban refugees and of the instant response of the National Catholic Welfare Conference to his requests for action.

B. Films Reported 'Flops'

Los Angeles — (NC) — Six of seven recent major Hollywood movies rated "B" by the National Legion of Decency were box office flops, according to a Los Angeles film columnist.

Erskine Johnson, Los Angeles film columnist, listed the six "B" office failures as "Strangers When We Meet," "Beloved Infidel," "Happy Anniversary," "From the Terrace," "Elmer Gantry" and "Desire in the Dust."

Of the "B" movies, only "Psycho" was a financial success, Johnson reported.

A film rated "B" by the legion is one which it regards as normally objectionable in part for all.

Johnson said the box office failure of objectionable films will cause producers to turn again to family entertainment of questionable taste were not acceptable to Hollywood's test audience.

Meanwhile, the Los Angeles Times protested objectionable movies and urged the public to shun them.

Teen Cagers Face Second Round

After dropping its first two statements, six players are set to start. McQuaid has since rebounded better including 67 Don starts, McQuaid has since rebounded better including 67 Don off-three straight wins in their Doyle (who had feeters from last game against Spencerport, the prox last year), 6-10 John the Knights finished strong to Von Bergen and 6-6 Joe McQuaid with 63-54 and thus average an 80-70 who led the team in regular setback. Backcourt operators scored last season.

McQuaid's January schedule: Fri. 6—East, away. Sun. 8—Canisius, home. Fri. 13—Charlotte, home. Sat. 20—Edison, home. Sun. 29—Mt. Carmel, away.

Gaining experience with each game, Coach Ron Mack's young Aquinas cagers have compiled a win streak of three after set backs in their first two contests. The predominantly junior All squad surprised a tall Hilton quintet 52-40 and then drubbed West 42-19.

Belmont Abbey College, located 12 miles from Charlotte, N.C., is small in every respect except one—basketball. Coached by Al McGuire, a former pro, this school is emerging as one of the best small college teams in the country.

McGuire moans about his recruiting problems. However, the team seems to offset his handicaps.

The U.S. Bishops' Committee on Motion Pictures, Radio and Television charged in November that so many recent Hollywood films have abandoned decent standards that "an unmitigated national protest" is necessary by Catholics.

Laymen Aid Missioners

Algiers — (RNS) — Catholic lay missionaries in the Sahara totaled 187 with the arrival of 20 new mission helpers in the Diocese of the Sahara.
