that I must be about my Father's business"? When Mary and Joseph thought that they had lost the Boy Jesus, and then found Him teaching in the Temple, Mary said to Him, "Son, why hast thou done so to us? Behold in sorrow thy father and I have been seeking Thee." Christ's answer, put to them gently in the form of a counter question, was not understood by them. In this they are the prototypes of all parents whose children God calls to His special service, of parents whose child has a "vocation." When a child tells a mother and father he or she wishes to become a priest, a brother, or a sister, all parents wonder. for different reasons, "why, my child?"—the wonderment of the devout is prayerful and thankful, that of others is a wonderment of rebellion. Boys and girls themselves who have a vocation wonder why God chose them when there seem to be others better qualified. God's ways, however, are mot our ways. In His mysterious Providence His choice falls on throse to whom He has given special graces and talents. Devout parents and the children "called" accept even though they do not understand,

The youth of India have been particularly renerous in answering God's call to serve Him in the Priesthood and the Religious Life. JOSEPH MANNOOR and CYRIAC MAPRAYIL are now students for the Priesthood at SAINT JOSEPH'S SEMIN. ARY in INDIA; SISTER NINA and SISTER DORIS are novices of the MEDICAL SIS-TERS OF SAINT JOSEPH, also in INDIA. All four of them come from poverty stricken homes. It will cost $600 to educate each of these seminarians and $300 to train each of the novices. Ther two boys and girls, like many others, are offering their lives to God. Could you offer the money to pay for their yours of preparation?
