Epiphany Blessing Rite Highlights Feastday

Corning — ... and opening their treasures, they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh in the symbol of his burial."

These words at the beginning of the traditional Epiphany Blessing of the Home were heard by members of the St. Gerard Mothers' Circle at the home of Mrs. Roland E. Langlois at 10 Crestwood Rd. on Thursday evening, Jan. 6.

The Rev. Thomas Watts, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, as moderator of the circle, blessed the home as part of a Twelfth Night meeting of the group.

OTHER NATIONAL and religious traditions were commemorated, including the Wasail Bowl and the Twelfth Night Cake. In the latter ceremony, the three Circle members who found the hidden bean in their cake became Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, the Three Wise Men. Then followed a visit to the Christmas Creche to adore the Christ Child. Gold, frankincense and myrrh were brought by the Magi and left at the crib.

Twelfth Night burning ceremonies were commemorated in a unique way. Each Circle member had been asked to bring some burnable object which had been part of the seasonal decorations in their homes. These objects were burned together with decorations from the Langlois' home, symbolizing the end of the Christmas Season and the "Divine Manifestation" or Feast of Epiphany.

During the evening Christmas songs and hymns were sung by the group. Tradition food, made according to exacting and ancient recipes, was served to the members present.

A meeting of the St. Gerard Mother's Circle was held Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Picarazzi, 217 West First St.

Aquinas Five To Meet Utica Sunday

Aquinas Institute basketball team is anticipating real trouble next Sunday afternoon when they meet a powerful Notre Dame five of Utica at the Utica Free Academy court.

The Notre Dame Jugglers have had little trouble fashioning victories over eight opponents so far this season, clicking for over 70 points a game.

The powerful Notre Dame offense, led by Mike Brown and John Prendergast, posted impressive wins over such schools as Xavier High of Brooklyn, Seton of Endicott and New Hartford. The Jugglers whipped Mt. Carmel of Auburn, 82-41. Aquinas defeated Auburn, 49-44.

PRENDERGAST, in the role of playmaker and rebounder, is one of the deffest players in the Utica area. In the Camden game on Jan. 4 he grabbed 18 rebounds, set up the pass patterns and led the scorers with 25 points.

Notre Dame with an 80 record will be looking for its ninth straight against Rome Free Academy this evening.

Aquinas, which came alive after a slow start, hopes to pull an upset by making it six straight in eight tries.

Rome Slides To Be Shown

Owego-Colored slides taken in Rome will be shown at the next meeting of the Rosary and Altar Society in the parish hall on Wednesday, Jan. 18.

The slides will be shown by Mrs. H. Austin Evans who will also give a short talk on her travels in Rome. Refreshments will be served, following the business meeting, by Mrs. Donald Raitt and the members of her Rosary band.

THE BUSINESS meeting will be conducted by Mrs. W. Stephen Leighton, president.

On Sunday, Jan. 22, a parish bake sale, under the auspices of the Rosary and Altar Society, will be conducted in the church hall, following all Masses.
