Resolved for 1961...

How many New Year's resolutions have you broken? It seems to be a human failing that the best of intentions sometimes get pushed aside in the hurry scurry of present day living. We would like to suggest a resolution that once made should be easy to keep. READ YOUR COURIER. There's something for everyone, every week. Answers to family problems, fashions, homemaking, child guidance and many more as well as the news of Catholic action in the diocese and around the world. You'll find it a rewarding experience to be informed, as an American and as a Catholic, of the many happenings that concern your daily family living.

We in turn pledge a continued policy of full truth in editorial reporting, and a policy of accepting advertising from concerns who have proven that they merit the support of our Catholic readers. To be sure of honest reporting and honest values check your Courier every week.
