Sr. Francis Crusaders Install New Officers

Geneva — James Peduhla is the new president of the Crusaders of St. Francis for 1961.

Officers of the organization were installed at a recent dinner at Pronti's restaurant. The dinner also celebrated the inauguration of the Third Order of St. Francis at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary.

OTHER OFFICERS installed were Frank Monaco, vice-president; Anthony Constable, recording secretary; John Spina, financial secretary; Al Rizzo, treasurer; Joseph DePillo, first trustee; Vincent Lisi, first counselor; Thomas Petrosino, second counselor; Anthony De Angelo, third counselor; S. J. Stramandinoli, fourth counselor; Frank Casasanta, fifth counselor.

Senior students at the Seminary were guests at the dinner. The dinner also marked the closing of the Crusaders Women's Auxiliary, all members joining the Third Order.

Principal speaker and master of ceremonies was Father Angelus Croce, moderator of the Third Order and the Crusaders.

Crusaders and the Women's Auxiliary entertained the young seminarians at a Christmas party on Sunday in the seminary on Lochland Rd.

Hymns and carols were sung by the students. Music was provided by Dom DeSosa and son, and Nicholas Palermo. Amelia Calabrese sang several selections. Refreshments were served.

COMMITTEE ON arrangements included Anthony Piffier, chairman and Sylvia Chil-bert co-chairman, and Joseph DiPillo, Vincent Lisi, Frank Monaco, Al Rizzo, Thomas Petrosino, Lucy DeDonna, Mary Perry, Kay Perry, Florence Angelini, Jennie Guerri and Marion Monaco.

Donors were James Legott, Alice Pronti, and Dom Cailo.

Ovid Catholic Daughters Meet

Ovid — The January meeting of Court St. Elizabeth No. 835, Catholic Daughters of America, was opened by Mrs. William Clair, grand regent on Jan. 12 in Columbus Hall. Mrs. Paul Covert, past grand regent of the court, told of her trip to the National CDA day at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.

She spoke of the colorful procession, the Knights of Columbus escort grouped around the Main Altar throughout the Mass. A medal was presented to the National Grand Regent of the CBA at the foot of the Altar. Miss Betty Quinn reported that $144 had been taken in on the sale of candy, a profit of $50 for the court on the project.

Mrs. Clair thanked the committee for the Christmas party last month — Mrs. Roger Vanstrand and Mrs. Charles Lovejoy, co-chairmen, and Mrs. Joseph McDonald, Mrs. Norman Getman, Mrs. Ernest Rivers and Miss Regina Martin.

She announced the refreshment committee for the next meeting on Feb. 9: Mrs. Arthur Vincent and Mrs. Norman Rogers, co-chairmen and Mrs. William Gallagher, Dr. Vera Smith, Mrs. Lawrence Linner, Mrs. Helena Huhn and Misses Gwen Peltz and Florence Domedon.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Bradley, Mrs. Glenn Corcoran, Mrs. James Bradley, Mrs. Henry McKenna and Mrs. Samuel Peltz.
