

Geneva Man Chosen For Air Force Post

Geneva — Major William C. Flannigan, formerly of 18 Universal Ave., is one of seven officers of the Air Force Academy to be chosen to spend several days as guest observer aboard units of the Pacific Fleet off San Diego, Calif.

MAJOR FLANNIGAN will be flown from Colorado Springs to San Diego where he will first board the USS Bon Homme Richard, one of the carriers attached to the Pacific Fleet.

Later in maneuvers, he will spend some time aboard one of the fleet-type submarines.

Since receiving his degree from the University of Maryland, Major Flannigan has been teaching at the Air Force Academy. With the opening of the baseball season at the Academy, Major Flannigan will serve as officer representative to the Academy baseball team, and will accompany the nine on its various road trips. Major Flannigan will complete 20 years of service with the Armed forces in spring.

HE IS MARRIED to the former Mary Ellen Bredesen of Seneca Castle and lives at Quarters 6406-B, Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Col. The Flannigans have six children.

While living in Geneva, Major Flannigan was sales manager for the old Georgian Bay Lumber Company and was active in both the St. Stephen's Club and Seneca Lake Country Club.

Holy Angels Drive Set

The Holy Angels Guild is conducting an extensive membership drive to further the Guild's program of aid to the Holy Angels Home conducted by the Sisters of the Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of Refuge.

TEEN-AGE girls are received at the Home for treatment on the lines of social formation. Primary emphasis is on the fundamental social experience which is found in family living.

While primarily intended for Catholic girls, the Home will accept any youngsters whose needs can be met by the training offered.

Final report meeting of the campaign will be held Feb. 27, at a business session at the Manger Hotel.

Mrs. Sylvester Zicari, chairman is assisted by the following members serving as Captains: Miss Josephine Flora, co-chairman, Mrs. Lynn French, Mrs. Alexander Grate, Mrs. Vernon Halloran, Mrs. Leonard O'Leary, Mrs. Glenn Perleas, Mrs. Paul Rombaut, Mrs. Wendell Ryan and Mrs. Francis G. Wagner.

Nazareth Grad Featured By National CSMC

Miss Jeanne Doscher, a 1960 graduate of Nazareth College, is the author of an article, 'Collegians Go Sweeping Down the Plain, in the January, 1961, issue of The Shield, the Catholic Students Mission Crusade magazine.

Miss Doscher was one of a group of 43 collegians (eleven from Nazareth College) who, spent the summer working in Oklahoma, taking a religious census and teaching catechism, in the diocese of Oklahoma City.

Armed before leaving the East with only a geographical knowledge of Oklahoma, which "conjured up images of Indians, snakes, cowboys and tepees," she confesses to a feeling of relief at finding it a modern state, and her working territory of the town of Chickasha (chosen because it sounded primitive) as modern as any town in America.

The people, she reports, were warmly sincere and hospitable, but in predominately Non-Catholic rural areas, most un-familiar with Catholic doctrine.

Leo J. Kesselring Joins Law Firm

Attorney Leo J. Kesselring has announced his association with the law firm of Burns, Suter & Doyle, with offices in the Wilder Building, 8 Exchange St.

The new member of the firm is a Rochester native, and a graduate of Aquinas Institute, St. John Fisher College, and St. John's University School of Law. He was admitted to the New York Bar in 1958.
