Father Carter Honored By Press-Radio Club

Rev. Cyril F. Carter, C.S.B., director of Athletics at Aquinas Institute and veteran teacher at the Catholic boys' high school, was among the recipients of awards at the annual Rochester Press-Radio Club charity dinner at the Powers Hotel, Jan. 23.

The dinner honored Arnold Palmer, chosen professional athelete of the year; Al Butler, outstanding basketball pdayer from Niagara University, and Father Carter. Palmer received the coveted $10,000 Hickok belt. Butler received a trophy and Father Carter received a plaque.

FATHER CARTER

JERRY FLYNN, toastmaster of the dinner, read the following inscription to the over-flow crowd: "To Father Cyril Carter: For having contributed so much so often, to the spirit of Sports the Rochester Press-Radio Club is proud to salute you." Only other recipient of such an award was Elmer Burnham, former football coach of the University of Rochester who was honored some years ago.

Father Carter came to Aquinas in 1942 and was appointed to the mathematics department of the school. In 1944 he was named director of athletics and under his supervision the school became nationally known in the field of sports. In 1952 Aquinas was commended by the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges for his excellent academic and athletic program. Father Carter was largely responsible for the latter.

In 1958 Father Carter presented a paper on the place of athletics in the high school curriculum which was subsequently published in the Basilian Teacher magazine.

Father Carter was born in Owen Sound, Ontario. He received his bachelor's degree from St. Michael's College in the University of Toronto. He pursued his theological studies at St. Basil's seminary and was ordained to the priesthood in Toronto. The University of Rochester awarded him his master's degree in education.
