Church Role In Democracy

Montreal — (RNS) — The role of the Church in a democracy should not be one of political interference, and assistance to the faithful.

Families Face Pressure

Wheaton, Ill. — (RNS) — Catholic families were urged to practice the moderation of St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan Order, in the face of constant pressures in today's society to amass an abundance of material goods.

A strong warning against such pressures was made by the Rev. Damian Zimmerman, O.F.M., Conv. of Assumption Seminary, Chaska, Minn., at the ninth annual meeting of Franciscan Teaching Sisterhoods here.

HE DECLARED that Christian families are being pressured constantly to acquire more than they need by "psychological advertising, conformism, pride, vanity, and the desire to have 'dignity.'"

Such pressures, he said, cause disorder within the family itself by inculcating a false set of standards for children and destroying the true concept of altruistic sacrifice.

Kremlin Claims Vatican Plots Africa Take-over

London — (RNS) — Broadcasts and reports from the Soviet Union depicting the Catholic Church as a sinister force conspiring for political and economic control in Africa have grown into an all-out propaganda barrage.

THE MAGAZINE said the Vatican is "now spending enormous sums in Africa, where there are over 200 Catholic newspapers and periodicals. The missionary fathers in Africa incite to violence and organize reactionary unions and parties. The Vatican hatches conspiracies, causes fratricidal fighting and increases terror."

THE MOSCOW Radio meanwhile gave evidence that it pays attention to Vatican Radio broadcasts. The station aired a lengthy reply to a broadcast in which the Vatican Radio repudiated Moscow charges that the Catholic Church was partly responsible for the tragic events in the Congo.

Pope Presides Vatican City — (RNS) — Pope John XXIII presided at a meeting of the Commission for the Discipline of the Sacraments, one of the bodies organized to help prepare the forthcoming Second Vatican Council.

Other speakers at the two-day meeting also concentrated on the Christian family in today's culture. Overall theme was: "Franciscan Ideals and Family Problems."

Speaking on the theme, the Very Rev. Pius J. Barth, O.F.M., of Indianapolis, Ind., president of the Franciscan Educational Conference, told the teaching nuns that their goal should be a "re-kindling of Franciscan idealism in 1960."

FIRST AID TIP

Tetanus toxoid immunization is recommended for everyone. Non-immunized persons should take precautions against tetanus with all wounds, even the slightest, says the Red Cross, which has been teaching first aid for 80 years.

Throughout the book we call for education of the people in politics and a true understanding of the institutions by which we are governed," said Abbe O'Neill. "We feel that politics is a field of moral action for Christians and that the true Christian can divorce himself from government."
