

Third Order
Prayer Day
Attracts 25

Coring — The annual afternoon of Recollection attracted 25 members of St. Pius X Fraternity, Third Order of St. Francis, at St. Vincent de Paul's Church Sunday, March 19.

SPEAKING TO the group was the Rev. Alban Carroll of St. John's Seminary at Moritz Falls. Using prayer as the subject for the first of two talks, numerous analogies were given to describe the assistance a soul receives from prayer in gaining its eternal reward.

Prayer, Father Carroll said, is actually an act of adoration, thanksgiving reparation and petition, all in one. In his second talk the speaker discussed the nature and working of man's conscience.

Conducted by the Rev. DeSales Standerwick, the afternoon concluded with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Deanery Women
Schedule Meet
In Horseheads

The Chemung-Schuyler Deanery Council of Catholic Women will hold a special executive meeting Monday, April 3 at 8 p.m. in the Annex of St. Mary's Church, Horseheads. Deanery officers, chairmen and affiliate presidents are expected. Mrs. Charles Emery, deanery president, urged each society president to appoint a representative if she cannot attend herself.

AN IMPORTANT topic on the agenda will be discussion of ways for the deanery council to raise money for operating expenses without interfering in affiliate activities. Rev. Benedict Ehmann of Watkins Glen, deanery moderator, will also be present.

New Model Home
Opened By Caldwell, Cook

Caldwell & Cook unveiled its new model home, the Lynnfield, at the English Village Development in the Mt. Read Blvd.-Lata Rd. district of Greece March 26 at 1 p.m.

The bi-level Lynnfield is the first home of its kind in the Rochester area, according to the building firm.

IT FEATURES two level construction with stairs leading to the living level and activity level directly from the main entrance foyer.

Up a few steps from the foyer is the living level. This consists of three bedrooms, bath, kitchen, dining area and living room. Down from the foyer is the activity level. Located here is a recreation room, a den, powder room, two storage areas and a utility room. The garage is also a part of this level.

The exterior is traditional colonial.

As has been the case with other unusual Caldwell & Cook models, Miss Julie Sherman of Baton Rouge, La., planned the interior decoration.

Caldwell & Cook has developed many of Greece's more distinctive residential sections including Paddy Hill, Paddy Hill South, Lakeview, Dewey Gardens, and, most recently, English Village. The firm is also developing Knickerbocker Hill in the Town of Pittsford.
