

$1,000 Given
At Mt. Carmel

Auburn — The Catholic Mission Crusade of the Mt. Carmel students reached the goal of $1,000 for the Bishop's Relief Fund. This goal was set by the C.S.M.C. at a rally held at the beginning of Lent. A grand total of $1,018 was the amount of the collections received. The collections were held every morning during Lent.

Fr. Simeon Marro, O. Carm., is moderator.

New Campus Officers Elected At Nazareth

Nazareth College students have announced this week, the results of their annual elections for major campus offices for the 1961-62 year.

The Undergraduate Association will be headed by Miss Mary Irvine, Henrietta, as president. Miss Irvine is a graduate of Rush-Henrietta Central School.

She will be assisted by Miss Patricia Denniston of Binghamton, as vice-president; Miss Virginia Holderbach of Corning, as secretary, and Miss Mary Patricia Kane, a 1960 graduate of Nazareth Academy, as treasurer.

CLASS PRESIDENTS for next year's senior, junior, and sophomore classes have also been selected. Miss Hildegard Werner, who came to Nazareth from Benjamin Franklin High School, will be the leader of the 1962 seniors.

Miss Marie Lescse, who was valedictorian of her class at Nazareth Academy, was chosen by next year's Juniors. The present freshmen have elected Miss Monica Riley of Oswego, as their president for their sophomore year.

Prefect of the Sodality for 1961-62 will be Miss Joanne Hibbs of Pittsford, who will have Miss Beth Carey of Albany, as her vice-prefect.

FREMION MISSION Unit of officers include Miss Mary Kowba of Rochester as the leader of the organization, and Miss Mary Mayback of Edina, Minnesota, as her first assistant. Miss Marie Mahoney of Buffalo, is the senior delegate to the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

Miss Judith Konezny, a day student, has been selected to represent the seniors on the Student Council of the Undergraduate Association.

Miss Gertrude Schliff, of Schenectady will act as president of the resident students.

Publication of VERITY, the College literary quarterly, will be under the direction of Miss Mary Judith Todd, of Carthage, N.Y., as editor; while SIGILLUM, the year book of the 1962 class, will be published under the editorship of Miss Jo-Ann Scarlato, of Allegheny, N.Y.

Other class officers will be elected after the Easter holidays.

Easter Finery

Academy Lists
Noted Author,
College Head

The Alumnae Association of the Sacred Heart will meet on Prince St., on Saturday, April 8 to hear Mother Kathryn Sullivan talk on Communism.

MOTHER SULLIVAN is head of the History Department of Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart and is also the author of several text books and many magazine articles. She is a graduate of Manhattanville and later received her M.A. and Ph.D. at the University of Pennsylvania. Her talk will be preceded by a coffee hour with Mrs. Daniel Macken in charge of arrangements. After the talk by Mother Sullivan, there will be noon Mass in the chapel.

Higher education its problems, and its opportunities, will be the topic under discussion next Tuesday, April 11, when Mother E. M. O'Byrne, president of Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart, Purchase, N.Y., meets alumnae, alumnae husbands and parents, parents of Manhattanville students and friends of the college from the Rochester area, at the convent of the Sacred Heart, Prince Street, at 7:45 p.m.

AN ALUMNAE committee headed by Mrs. Henry F. Stoltmann, 408 University Park, is arranging the meeting.

KC Sponsors
Medicine Drive
For Missions

Chairman Joseph L. J. Borgatti has announced that The Catholic Affairs Committee of the New York State Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a drive to collect medicines and medical supplies for distribution to the Catholic Missions.

THE MISSIONS have urgent need for medicines of all kinds and are deeply appreciative of any help afforded them. The need is acute and medicine is dispensed to all regardless of race or creed, Borgatti stated.

Doctors and dentists receive a vast amount of sample medicines from the manufacturers and jobbers, much of which remains unused. In most cases they are glad to dispose of their surplus and will make it available for the asking, he stated.

Medicines and medical supplies should be forwarded to the following collection center: Dr. Paul S. La Londe, 277 Lakeview Drive, Rochester, N.Y.

Egg Hunt
At Villa

Children at St. Joseph's Villa had an Easter Egg hunt Wednesday afternoon, arranged by 35 members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help high school sodality. Five dozen eggs were hard-boiled and brightly colored by the sodalists who also provided prizes for the youngsters who found the gold and silver eggs.

Melkite Mass Slated For Alhambra Members

Grand Commander Philip J. Randazzo announces that the Annual Corporate Communion and Breakfast of Musa Caravan No. 25, Order of the Alhambra, will take place on Sunday, April 16.

To become better acquainted with the different Rites of the Church, members of Musa Caravan will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion at the 8:00 a.m. Divine Liturgy at St. Nicholas Church, 370 Remington St. corner Leo St.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Andrew Hallak will be celebrant of the Byzantine Melkite Mass, which will be celebrated in English.

FOLLOWING THE celebration of the Mass, breakfast will be served in the downstairs Parish Hall. The price is $1.50 per plate. Neophytes are welcome at this affair.

Special guest speaker will be Monsignor Hallak, pastor and host.

According to Raymond C. Shaheen, chairman and Joseph J. Attinasi, co-chairman of the reservations' deadline is Wednesday, April 12. Reservations received by Ray Shaheen, CO 6-1500 or CO 6-8397 or Joe Attinasi, CL 4-6291.

Parents Group To Elect

The St. Andrew's Seminary Parents Association will hold its next meeting at 8 p.m. on Monday, April 10 at the Seminary.

NOMINATION and election of officers for the coming year will take place.

The Very Rev. Msgr. Richard Quinn, rector, will show pictures of his recent trip to Europe.

Plans will be completed for the third annual card party on Monday, May 1 at the Seminary. Proceeds will be used to increase the sports facilities for the seminarians.

Confirmation

Bitburg — (NC) — One hundred and seventy-five children and adults here with the U.S. Armed Forces were confirmed by Bishop Matthias Wehr of Trier in the chapel of the U.S. Air base at nearby Spangdahlem.

Auburn Concert

CHRISTOPHER LYNCH, noted Irish tenor, will appear in concert for the benefit of St. Mary's School at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, in Emerson Auditorium at East High School, Auburn. Lynch, who appeared here six years ago, will be accompanied by Miss Lorraine Marie Moreau, talented young lyric soprano. A protegee of the late John McCormick, Lynch has starred in radio, television and has appeared on the concert stage. He sang several times on the Voice of Firestone on radio and TV.
