

Pre-Cana Series To Open At Blessed Sacrament

Second last complete series of Pre-Cana Conferences of the season will begin on Sunday, April 9. There will be no series during the summer months. It is suggested that any couple planning marriage between now and the end of September attend as soon as possible so that they will have completed the course before marriage. This Conference will be held at Blessed Sacrament School Hall, 546 Oxford St. The talks will begin at 3 p.m. each Sunday.

THE REV. GERALD DUNN will discuss, "God's Plan in Love and Marriage" on April 9. On April 16, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barrett will talk on, "Practical Helps to Marriage." Dr. Maurice Gormican will have the topic, "A Catholic Doctor Looks at Marriage" on April 23. The Rev. Walter Cushing will close this series on April 30 with the subject, "Spirituality in Marriage."

It is not necessary to make reservations as attendance will be taken at the meetings. Certificates will be given at the completion of the course. It is possible to substitute attendance from one series to the next. A couple may begin on any Sunday between now and May 7 and complete the series in four Sundays.

Hawaiian Mass in Cloud Burst

Oahu — (RNS) — Catholic Chaplain (Capt.) Thomas A. Doran of the 1st Battle Group, 27th Infantry (Wolfhounds) raises a chalice at the consecration of the Mass during a heavy cloudburst somewhere in the Koolau Mountains on the island of Oahu, Hawaii. Chaplain Doran said the Mass for soldiers stationed at Schofield Barracks as he made his rounds to remote outposts during a recent jungle warfare exercise in the mountains.

Easter Spans Iron Curtain

New York — (NC) — Easter church services and messages from leading churchmen were beamed behind the Iron Curtain by Radio Free Europe. Cardinal Spellman noted in his message that "every trial and sacrifice endured in God's Name has meaning and will receive its reward."

Highlight of Radio Free Europe's Easter programming was a broadcast of His Holiness Pope John XXIII's Easter message direct from the Vatican. TRANSLATIONS of the Pope's message were broadcast in the languages of communist satellite countries of eastern Europe — Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania.

Radio Free Europe broadcast to eastern Europe Holy Thursday services and Good Friday services in Rome.

The agency carried Easter messages for the satellite peoples from leading churchmen as well. Among those whose messages were broadcast were Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York; Joseph Cardinal Ritter, Archbishop of St. Louis; Archbishop Patrick A. O'Boyle of Washington, D.C.; and Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati.

Fragment Of Prayer

Budapest — (RNS) — A fragment of the text of the Lord's Prayer in the long-extinct Cumanian language was discovered in the Kunszentmiklos farm community 40 miles south of here.

The fragment was owned by Lucas Szappanos, a 72-year-old peasant, who was able to quote the Cumanian version up to the words, "as it is in heaven." However, he said that although the words were clearly fixed in his memory, he did not understand them any more.

The Cumanians were an old Turkish race which lived in Moldavia and North Bulgaria until the Tartars of Genghis Khan pushed them into Hungary early in the 13th century. They were settled by Hungarian King Bela IV in a region between the Danube and Tisza Rivers, some 70 to 80 miles south of Budapest. The name of their last king, Kuthen, is still preserved in the name of a large farming district in the neighborhood of Halas.

TV Violence Spurs Crime

Montreal — (NC) — Juvenile delinquency is increasing in France and violence on television is to blame for it, a French psychoanalyst said here.

"Not since World War II has the French youngster been exposed to so much violence as he can see on television today," said Dr. Philippe Parrot, an authority on the mental health problems of juveniles.

He said that "recent studies have shown that juvenile crimes have increased noticeably in all the areas (of France) where television has become available." The problem is all the more acute because French youth rely on television for nearly all of their entertainment, he stated.

Architects Form Firm

A new architectural firm, to be known as Ribson & Roberts, Architects, has been formed by Edward J. Ribson, A.I.A., and William P. Roberts, A.I.A., both well-known Rochester architects who have served in leading local offices.

The new firm will locate its offices at Ribson's present address, 73 Wilmer Street, and will establish a general practice. Projects now in process include Our Lady Queen of Peace school in Brighton and St. Ann's school in Palmyra.

Mothers To Sponsor Cana Talks, April 16

"In the Christian life, Marriage is not just a contract or an institution, but a Sacrament which unites the man and woman in a most intimate way with God, to participate in His work of creating and redeeming the world."

This will be the theme of the conference for married couples of Holy Apostles Parish Sunday, April 16, at Holy Apostles School Hall. The conference will be sponsored by the Mothers' Club for Catholic and non-Catholic couples, beginning at 7 p.m.

THESE LECTURES are known as "Cana Conferences," after the first miracle of Jesus Christ which was performed at a marriage feast in the town of Cana in Galilee.

They are designed to explain the truths which underlie the vocation of marriage, and to inspire the couples with a deeper understanding and appreciation of their dignity as husband and wife and as parents.

The lectures will be given by Father Gerald Dunn of St. Monica's, and will treat topics such as "the meaning of love and happiness," the roots of joy or dissatisfaction in the family.

Teachers Guild Formed

Madras — (RNS) — The Roman Catholic hierarchy of South India has decided to form a Catholic Teachers' Guild in each diocese as a tool of Catholic Action.

A principal task assigned to each guild chapter will be the scrutiny of government-published text books which are prescribed for use in all Madras State schools, whether they are public, private or church-related. Privately published textbooks are not given government approval for use in schools.

Catholic leaders have joined other educators and politicians in protesting against the government's nationalization of the textbook business. An archdiocesan publication here complained editorially about "the utter undesirability" of the situation.

Again Spring

These are signs of it: Voices Breaking out-of-doors Like blue platters suddenly Striking floors. The morning-light advancing Bright and bronze of face, Plying veil and castanet With pagan grace. And branches barren still Of yotive leaf thereon, Arching heaven offering Eleison.
