Daniel Skinner Wins In Waterloo KC Contest

Waterloo — The oratorical contest sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, Waterloo Council, was held on Wednesday evening, April 5, at St. Mary's School. Contestants were Daniel Skinner and Patrick Cuddeback, both seniors in Waterloo Central High School. Skinner was judged the winner and Cuddeback was named alternate.

THE JUDGES were Miss Helen Fahy, Mrs. Alfred Coggins and Mr. Donald Eshenour. James VanNortwick is chairman of the Oratorical Program for the Waterloo Council.

The district contest will be held in St. Mary's Auditorium on April 22. Included in the district besides Waterloo are Seneca Falls and Auburn.

Skinner will compete at that time against representatives from either or both of those places. The winner in this competition will then go to Syracuse for the Central New York District crown. The place and date of this contest will be announced at a later date.

National Retreat Meet Scheduled In Pittsburgh

The mid-term legislative meeting of the National Laywomen's Retreat Movement will be held in Pittsburgh on April 14, 15 and 16.

IT IS HERE that the policies and procedures are presented, voted and adopted or rejected.

A new president-elect will be chosen at this meeting.

Miss Helen Durnin and Miss Marguerite Colgan will be the delegates to represent the Cenacle Retreat House.

Treadway Wins Merit Award

Rochester Treadway Inn is winner of the annual National Restaurant Association's "Award of Silver Seal."

The National award is presented for outstanding copy, artwork and layout of the dinner menu. Treadway Inn won the award with its Saturday Champagne Dinner Menu, a weekly feature in the Publick Room, main dining room.

Minstrel Show Planned To Aid Camp Columbus

St. Alphonsus Minstrel Association, a non-profit organization, each year stages a show for the benefit of Camp Columbus, Owasco Lake, Auburn. This year its presentation is entitled, "Kabaret Kapers", and will be offered on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 24 and 25, at 8 p.m., Emerson Auditorium, East High School, Auburn.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Because of this Minstrel Show, Camp Columbus is able to offer a $5 reduction in rates for the residents of Cayuga County.

This year's show will be a variety type program, featuring adults and children alike. The show is under the direction of Leo Kroker with choreography by Mrs. Bruce Doan and Mrs. David Yantch. Production Manager is Mrs. Alfred Murphy.

Separate Classification

Never Take Candy From a Stranger—The subject matter of this film deals with a perverted sociological problem, namely the molestation of small children. Although treated with moral caution and without sensationalism the film could, in a mass medium of entertainment, have a seriously harmful effect upon the very young and uninformed unless accompanied by a parent. For this reason the advertising of this film carries the observation: "Notice to Parents—No child will be admitted unless accompanied by you."

Student Project Aids Patients In Hospital

A recent project of the Junior Red Cross Unit at St. Agnes High School was the collecting of current issues of many magazines so that they might start a magazine cart for the patients at the State Hospital.

ACCORDING TO Carol Bleier, president of the St. Agnes Unit, several hundred issues were obtained for this purpose. The students have also collected, refurbished, and packaged over 2,000 pieces of jewelry which the Red Cross distributed to the State Hospital and the Monroe County Home as prizes for their Bingo games.

Both as a reward for past efforts and a stimulus for future projects, the following home room representatives visited the Chapter House on Clinton Avenue North at the invitation of Mrs. Florence Jacobs, Rochester Director of the American Junior Red Cross: Ruth Egan, Katherine Davin, Mary Frances Boothby, Maria Elaina Nalore, Carol Bleier, Pauline Angione, Elaine Gerger, Christine Marchaud, Mary Ellen Murphy, and Juanita Papineau.

Objection: What might have been a family film is in fact a blatant exhibition of suggestive costuming and dancing.

Right Approach, The

Objection: The low moral tone, suggestive dialogue and situations of this film are particularly objectionable because of the film's special appeal to teenagers.

Barbershop Harmony Week Celebrated

Rochester is one of the few cities in the country who supports not one but two active, and fast-growing chapters of the popular SPEBSQSA (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America).

OUR TWO CHAPTERS, Genesee Chapter and Rochester No. 1, join more than 650 chapters in North America, this week, to celebrate "Barbershop Harmony Week", marking the founding of the Society on April 11, 1938, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, by the late Owen C. Cash.

On Saturday, April 8, seven area choruses joined in an area chorus meet, hosted by the Canandaigua chapter. Chorus representatives from both Rochester chapters and those of Warsaw, Canandaigua, Geneva, Buffalo, East Aurora and Kenmore participated. Current District champion is Genesee Chapter.
