'Marriage As Vocation' Panel Discussion Set

Ithaca — There will be a panel discussion on "How to encourage our young people to look upon marriage as a vocation" on Wednesday, April 19, at 8:15 in Parish Hall of Immaculate Conception Church.

This is one of the series of talks sponsored by the Child Study Club of Immaculate Conception School Parent-Teacher Association, and the Parent-Educator Division of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

TAKING PART in the panel are: Rev. John S. Maloney, administrator of Immaculate Conception Parish; Dr. John Schmitt, psychologist of Ithaca; Mrs. Jason S. Pettigell of the Family Service; Mrs. Charles Christian, lay catechist.

Mr. Charles Christian will moderate the panel.

Co-chairmen of the meeting will be Mrs. Francis Sullivan and Mrs. John Churey. All members of the Study Club and the Parent-Educator group will be welcome as well as any other interested persons.

Crew Attends Mass
Fatima—(NC)—The captain, officers and many of the crew of the Portuguese liner Santa Maria, which was seized in the Caribbean by opponents of the Portuguese government in January, attended a thanksgiving Mass for their safe deliverance here before the ship went out again on her normal route.

Nun's Father, H. W. Williams Requiem Held

Auburn — Harry Weston Williams, 62, of Evans Mills, owner of Le Ray Frozen Foods in that village, died March 22 in Mercy Hospital, Watertown, after an extended illness.

He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Delehant Williams; a son, John R. of Evans Mills; a daughter, Sister Josephine Clare, a member of the Sisters of St. Joseph, and principal of St. Rose School, Lima, New York; four grandchildren; a brother, Earl Edward Williams; three sisters, Mrs. Grace Totman, Mrs. Mabel Dixon and Mrs. Inez Linford, all of Auburn, New York.

WILLIAMS was a communicant of St. Mary's Church and its Holy Name Society, Evans Mills, and a member of the Knights of Columbus of Carthage.

Solemn High Mass of Requiem was offered on Saturday, March 25, at St. Mary's Church, Auburn, with Rt. Rev. Msgr. James D. Cuffney, as celebrant, Rev. John T. Walsh, deacon, and Rev. Ignatius St. George as Sub-deacon. Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Cowen, Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Ball, Rev. William H. Hickey and Rev. James Sharples were in the sanctuary. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Auburn.

'Law Day USA' Planned Here

Law Day U.S.A., the only day proclaimed by the President of United States to emphasize the contrast between the rule of law in our Nation as compared to others, will be celebrated Monday, May 1.

Monroe County Bar Association, which represents the attorneys and judges in the county, has formed a special committee for this year's Law Day U.S.A. observance.

According to Sergeant W. Wise, Chairman of the committee, plans are being made for dedication of the new court building in the Civic Center, school assembly speakers, an essay contest, special church observances and a Law Day Luncheon around the time of the observance.

Plaque Blessed

ANNUNCIATION SCHOOL now has a plaque of the Annunciation mounted on the front of the school. Made in Vienna of hammered copper in a patina finish, the plaque was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Russo in memory of their parents. Following the blessing ceremony Tuesday, the school children presented the pastor, the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti, with a scrapbook of his life. Making the presentation are Karen Bailey and James Magners, second graders.

Young Artists' Work Judged

Some 40 boys and girls from the schools in Rochester's north-east area painted windows in stores on Hudson Ave. with Easter designs on March 29, 30 and 31.

THE PROGRAM was sponsored by the Hudson Ave. Area Association, an organization of merchants on the street who are working to combat conditions which cause deterioration of business properties and living standards.

Officers of the organization are David Yalowich, Edmund Przynda, Edmund Sherman and Clinton Wall.

The window water paintings were judged on Saturday, April 1 by Mrs. Edna Weeks Smith of the Memorial Art Gallery, Vice Mayor Joseph Farbo and Bernard H. Florack, publisher of the Rochester Tribune.

Listed below are the winners. Their school and the location of their paintings:
Birate Stankus, St. George, (Stanley's Men's Shop); Joseph Juzweak, St. Stanislaus, (Zambora's Market); Susanne Kuzmic, Holy Redeemer, (Yalowich Drugs); Robert J. Szwajkos, St. Stanislaus, (Hudson Pizza); Richard Vigilante, No. 26 School, (K & K Market); Judith Buben, St. Stanislaus, (Wegman's); Irene Jackson, No. 26 School, (Master's Upholstery); Ruth Sytkens, St. George, (Vic's Confectionery); and Susan Passer, No. 26 School, (Century Signs).

Prudential Wins Company Honor

The staff of the Prudential Insurance Co.'s Monroe district was honored Friday at a presentation dinner on the Starlite Roof of the Sheraton Hotel in Rochester.

The dinner was held to present the Monroe district formally with the President's Citation, a top company honor for "all-round agency accomplishments" during the past year.

Frank A. Sestito, district manager, said that this is the sixth time that the Rochester district has won this coveted award. The entire sales and clerical staff, their wives and husbands and several retired members of the district were invited.

Presentation of the citation was made by Harold E. Dow, vice president in charge of Northeastern operations for the company.

Deanery Women Meet, Schedule Activities

About 25 deanery officers and affiliate presidents attended a special executive meeting of the Chemung - Schuyler Deanery Council of Catholic Women last Monday, April 3, at St. Mary's Annex, Horseheads.

MRS. CHARLES EMERY, deanery president, called for a discussion of ways and means to replenish the treasury. A measure was adopted to have each society in the deanery donate a sum of money to help defray costs of deanery running expenses. The method and amount of donation will be decided by each individual group.

Mrs. Emery, reporting on the recent Pre-Cana Conference sponsored by the deanery, announced that 30 couples had attended the three sessions in March. Rev. Otto J. Vogt, assistant pastor at St. Patrick's and director of the series, expressed his gratitude to the deanery for their help and said he plans to repeat the series next fall.

Mrs. Charles A. Smith, editor of the 'Deanery Digest', called for suggestions to improve the format of the monthly newsletter and urged chairmen to get reports in by the 27th of the month.

Rev. Benedict Ehmman, deanery moderator, invited everyone to attend a special day of prayer on June 1 at St. Mary's of the Lake in Watkins Glen. The main theme of the devotions is to pray for the Pope's intention of church unity.

INCLUDED in the day's activities will be a tour of the Friars of Atonement Seminary in Montour Falls. This society was established specifically to promote World Christian Unity.
