Civil War Time Play Slated By St. Agnes Cast

As part of St. Agnes High School's program in "Develop- mental" Dramatics program, members of the Dramatics Class, under the guidance of Sister Evelyn, will present a one-act play entitled "Final Curtain." It will be presented to the student body today, April 14, in the school auditorium.

The play takes place in the Ford Theater, in Washington, April 14, 1865, the night Abraham Lincoln was shot. It is based on the backstage events which led to his assassination. President Lincoln is referred to, but is not seen.

It is one of several one-act plays given during the year re- placing the traditional high school three-act production and was chosen because of the Civil War Centennial as well as its dramatic value. Cast includes Joanne Con- igitia, Sharon Frederick, Joan Andres, Carol Vahl, Lynn Le- Blanc and Sharon Dean.

Card Party To Benefit Cenacle

The Tenth Annual Post-Eas- ter Card Party for the benefit of the Convent of Our Lady of the Retreat in the Cenacle will take place on Monday, April 24 at 8 p.m. It will be held in the Auditorium of the McQuaid Jesuit High School which has again been chosen by the com- mittee. There is ample free parking available.

THE CARD PARTY is being sponsored by members of the various guilds, study clubs and friends of the Cenacle under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jo- seph J. Hallett with Miss Rita Schwalb acting as her cochair- man.

Bishop Kearney will be hon- orary chairman of the event. The proceeds from this year's card party will be applied to the reduction of the sizeable debt contracted by the Com- munity in order to build the new wing and chapel which now are completed. The Re- treat House has grown from the home of Mrs. Libanus Todd, left by her to the diocese in 1947.

WHAT IS THE CENACLE? What is a retreat? Literally the Cenacle is a dining room. The First Cenacle was the Upper Room where the Last Supper took place, where Christ re- turned to his Apostles after His Ascension and where, to- gether with Mary, the Apostles awaited the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This last was really the first closed re- treat.

The Cenacle convents perpe- tuate the first Cenacle through catechetical work with both adults and children, preached retreats for groups, and private retreats which can be made at any time convenient to the in- dividual.

The Religious of the Cenacle have the two-fold aim of their own sanctification and the sanctification of others. They accomplish through these ap- ostatic works and a life of prayer and contemplation. Enroll- ment in the Cenacle Crusade of Prayer means sharing in all the works and prayers of the Cenacle.

Many take advantage of this Convent any time during the day throughout the week of April 16.

The committee has arranged for a special bus which will leave the school at 10:30 p.m. This is for the convenience of those needing transportation to the downtown area.

The Congregation of Our Lady of the Retreat in the Cenacle was founded in France in 1826 by Father Stephen Terrel and Blessed Therese Couderc. The first foundation was a con- vent where women might with- draw from the hustle and bus- tle of the world. If this was a need in 1826, it is certainly an even greater one in our mod- ern, materialistic Atomic Age.

established in 1948 with five Religious, is now a community of 16 and is one of the 60 convents throughout the world, nineteen of them in North America.

In the short time that they have been in Rochester, more and more women have learned through them to know and love the closed retreat, and to re- alize the spiritual benefits de- rived from spending those quiet hours in prayer and meditation. All who have ex- perience the joys of the re- treat hope, through this card party, to make it possible for many more to become friends of the Cenacle.

Tickets may be obtained at the Cenacle at 593 East Ave- nue (BR 1-8755) or from mem- bers of the Ticket Committee, of which Miss Mary DiCaridia is chairman and Miss Norma Dentinger is cochairman. Ticket returns should be made at the
