

Ignatius Mattie Requiem Offered By Priest Sons

Hornell—Bishop James E. Hearney, monsignori and priests from all sections of the Rochester Diocese attended funeral services May 8 for Ignatius Mattie, prominent Hornell businessman.

A Solemn High Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Ann's Church by his son, the Rev. Richard Mattie, assistant pastor of St. Agnes Church in Avon. Father Mattie's twin brother, the Rev. David Mattie, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church in Rochester, was deacon. The subdeacon was the Rev. William J. Spellee, formerly of Hornell, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Rochester.

Officers of the Mass were the Rev. Roger Switzer of Horseheads, the Rev. Paul Brennan, Penn Yan; the Rev. Paul Free, Auburn; the Rev. Gerald Appleby, Rochester and the Rev. William Barrett of Elmira.

Music for the Mass was sung by a priests' choir with the Rev. Charles Langworthy, assistant pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hornell, as organist-director. Members of the choir were the Revs. Gerald McMahon, Ontario; Bernard Carges, Geneva; Thomas O'Keefe, Dansville; George Gauthier, Waterloo, and John Gormley, Paul McCabe and John Dillon, all of Rochester.

In the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lawrence W. Gannon, V.F., pastor of St. Ann's, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward McAniff of Rochester and the Very Rev. Msgr. Patrick Flynn of Avon.

Other survivors are Mr. Mattie's widow, Mrs. Mary Vanuto Mattie; a son, Ignatius Mattie of Hornell; three daughters, Miss Patricia Mattie and Miss Mary Louise Mattie at home and Mrs. Guy Casaceli of Rochester and eight grandchildren.

The late Mr. Mattie operated a soft drink bottling business in Hornell for many years, as well as a confectionery store in partnership with his brother. He was active in civic and community affairs and was a life member of the Hornell Lodge of Elks; a charter member of the Lions Club, a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Ann's Church and of the American Bottlers Association and the New York State Bottlers Association.

Burial was in St. Ann's Cemetery.

Returns To Rome

Rome — (NC) — Santiago Cardinal Copello, Chancellor of the Holy Roman Church, has returned here after a visit to Argentina, where he served from 1932 to 1959 as Archbishop of Buenos Aires.

SILVER TEA for the benefit of the Jesuit Missions will be held by the Loyola Council from 3 to 5 p.m. May 21 at McQuaid Jesuit High School. Discussing plans are from left, seated, Joseph Conroy, president; Mrs. Joseph Siconolfi, chairman; and standing, Mr. William Malley, S.J., a native Rochesterian who has just returned from the missions; and Rev. Severin George, S.J., moderator.

Cornell Leaders Hail Msgr. Cleary's Work

Ithaca — Hailed for "outstanding contribution to the religious life of Cornell for the past quarter century," Very Rev. Msgr. Donald M. Cleary, Catholic chaplain at Cornell, received the appreciative tributes of the Holy Roman Church, has returned here after a visit to Argentina, where he served from 1932 to 1959 as Archbishop of Buenos Aires.

Sanford S. Atwood, provost of the University, representing the administration and the Rev. Richard B. Stott, Episcopalian chaplain speaking for CURW, praised Msgr. Cleary for his "priestly concern which went far beyond the Cornellians of his own Church."

BISHOP KEARNEY offered a Mass of Thanksgiving in the Taylor Hall, interfaith religious center on the Cornell campus, preceding the speeches of tribute. He was assisted by his secretary, Very Rev. Msgr. Edward J. McAniff and Rev. Richard Torney, associate chaplain at the University.

In his address Bishop Kearney cited the heavy responsibility for our time is the spirit of co-operation and understanding which has to be maintained for religious faith and CURW. When we look back on the ing that the Catholic Church through Monsignor Cleary's past 25 years at Cornell we can be most thankful we know that a man of God has been with us.

John W. McDonald, '26, professor in the Cornell Law School, spoke for some 2000 Catholic Alumni of the university whom Monsignor Cleary had served in the quarter century. Presenting a purse donated by alumni from all over the world, he reported that hundreds of messages had been sent to him for the retiring Chaplain indicating "the gratitude and regard of former parishioners on campus."

Monsignor Cleary, who lives at the Newman Oratory, 614 Stewart Ave., has had full-time chaplain duties at Cornell since 1938, except for a three-year interval 1943-6 when he was Air Force Chaplain in Europe. He is currently establishing the new parish of St. Catherine of Siena in Cayuga Heights. He leaves his religious duties at the University next month and will be succeeded by the Rev. Richard Torney, his present associate.

Fights Obscenity

Hammond, Ill. — (NC) — Police Chief Michael J. Kambiss has urged distributors and retailers of magazines and paperback books to crack down on smut. Mr. Kambiss said he had asked "honest and conscientious businessmen" to exercise self-regulation to curb the distribution of immoral literature.

Father Time

Tingsing, Burma — (NC) — A "sick" clock recently needed the ministrations of a U.S. missionary here in the Kachin hills of Burma.

"My most unusual sick call in 22 years," wrote Father Lawrence McMahon, S.S.C., of Chicago.

It seems that the clock in the state school eight miles distant had stopped. Would the Jau (Father) come and fix it? Someone, as the Baptist head teacher explained, had forgotten "to feed it rice," the Kachin idiom for winding a clock. When the missionary had set things right, including the clock, classes could once again begin and end on time.
