

Dances Set By Nazareth Classes

Members of three of Nazareth's four classes will be in a dancing mood on Saturday evening, May 13, when juniors, sophomores, and freshmen hold their annual spring dances.

The University Club will be the scene from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. of the junior prom, "Manhattan by Candlelight". A New York skyline will provide a backdrop for candlelit tables.

Paula Saturno is junior prom general chairman; Mary Calarco, assistant chairman. Others are: Kathleen Scanlon, decorations; Terry Oberlight, publicity; Hildegard Werner, refreshments; Mary Way, accommodations; Jane Zima, favors, and Beth Carey, treasurer.

THE PROM queen will be chosen among Mary Calarco, Mary Elizabeth Maybach, Jo Ann Scarlato, Janet Seymour, Jane Zima, and Paula Saturno.

The soph-frosh hop, a semi-formal dance held at the school from 9 to midnight, carries the theme of "Please Don't Eat the Daisies". The college auditorium is being converted into a spring park complete with a fountain, a park bandstand, weeping willow trees, and, of course, daisy chains by the dozen.

Patricia Roney is general chairman of this affair with Margaret Dunn as assistant chairman. The heads of the committees are: Frances Rinaldi and Shelby Davis, decorations; Barbara Hoffman, refreshments; Charlotte Castham, publicity; Tom Benz, invitations; Mary Ann Kinsky, tickets, and Gwen Twitty, rearrangements.

Dance Listed At St. Agnes

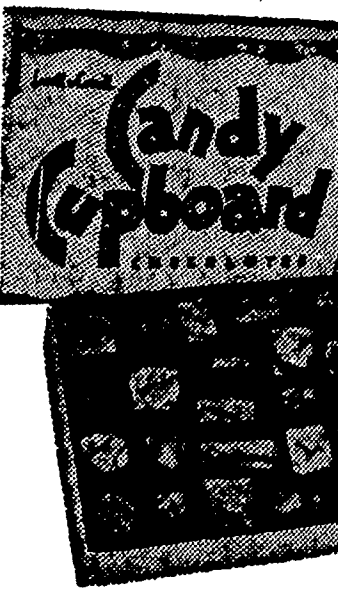

Record Hops were a new social-light at St. Agnes High this year, but they have proved so popular that they seem here to stay. The Spring Hop will be held Friday, May 19, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the school gym, under direction of Penelope Zutes.

"Live" music will be donated all evening by the five-man J-B Combo whose "make-you-want-todance" beat is one of the greatest attractions. The hop is open to all four St. Agnes classes and their friends.
