Aquinas Sets Track Record in Geneva

Aquinas Institute's track team established two new track records in the Geneva Relays last Saturday when they captured first place in the annual Kiwanis competition. The Little Irish picked up 22 points to win the Champion's Trophy against 12 contending schools. Geneva high school took second place with 15 points.

The winning combination of Walt Hogan, Ron McKissock, Gerald Guerinet and Tim Boland completed the 1 1/2 mile relay in 8:13.3 to shatter the previous record set by Canadigua Academy.

The two mile record of 8:48 set by Corning Northside was broken by Aquinas' Paul Schlachter, Kevin Clifford, Charles Klueber and Robert Bossert with an official timing of 8:41.8.

McQuaid Jesuit high school, with one relay team, took sixth place in the meet. They won the mile relay with a team composed of Paul Knipper, Mike

Newcomb, George Deltz and Bob McBride.

Aquinas placed first in two other events, the 480 low hurdles won by Tom Cimino, Tom Kluchko, Jim Mahar and Gerry Gears and the 1650 yard medley relay won by Bill Lambert, Bill Wisotzke, Dan Nally and Ray Flynn.

The Aquinas track team will travel to Elmira this afternoon for the Elmira Relays

Volunteer workers painted St. Anne School annex in ten hours last weekend. Shown with the workers is the Rev. Elmer Schmidt, assistant pastor. The volunteers already have other projects lined up around the parish

Science-Math Seminar To Hold Final Session

For the final session of the Joe Berg Science-Math Seminar, Tuesday, May 23, at Our Lady of Mercy High School, the Rev. Cornelius J. Carr, S.J., principal of McQuaid Jesuit High School, will be the guest speaker. Father Carr's topic will be the place of science and mathematics in education. Father Carr will chair a question period following his lecture.

This session will wind up the second year of the Berg Science-Math Seminar held at Our Lady of Mercy High School every Tuesday evening of the school year for a select group of gifted science and math students from the Catholic High schools of Rochester.

All the previous speakers for the two-year period, the Planning Committee, the principals of the schools involved (Mercy, St. Agnes, Nazareth, Aquinas and McQuaid), and all the students who have participated in this program have been invited to this special program.

PINS AND certificates will be presented to the Planning Committee and the students to close this phase of the program, according to Sister Mary Edward, R.S.M., coordinator of the seminar. The students who have been members for two years and also those who have had a one-year membership and have completed an accepted project will receive pins. The other students who have been members for one year will receive a certificate.

Pins will be awarded to Mr. Roy Drake, S.J., assistant coordinator of the program last year; and to the following members of the Planning Committee: Dr. James Koller, Dr. C. J. Taylor.

200 Attend Banquet Of Christian Mothers

Auburn — The Confraternity of Christian Mothers of St. Alphonsus Church held their annual banquet at Springside Inn on Thursday evening, May 11. There were over 200 members and guests in attendance.

Guest speaker was Rev. Robert G. Kreckel, former moderator of the Confraternity, now at Immaculate Conception Church in Rochester.

Installation of officers took place with Mrs. Fred Bennett acting as installing officer. Next year's new officers are: Mrs. David Clifford—President; Mrs. Louis Daly—vice-president; Mrs. Robert Gallo—secretary; Mrs. Robert Bishop—treasurer.

Mrs. Richard Corcoran and Mrs. Thomas Clifford were co-chairmen with the following committee: Mrs. John Gower, Mrs. William Hockeborn, Mrs. Hugh Major, Mrs. Robert Foster, Mrs. Paul Young, Mrs. Ernest Brown, and Mrs. Thomas Walsh.

Mrs. Clarence Maywalt played the piano and Mrs. John Gagan led the group singing.

Junior Red Cross Honors 16 Students

Sixteen Catholic high school students received American Red Cross certificates of merit at the May meeting of the Junior Red Cross Inter-High School Council Tuesday, May 16 at 5:45 p.m. in the Red Cross Chapter House Canteen, 276 Clinton Avenue South.

They are: Aquinas: Bruce Rowan and Richard Bongo; McQuaid: Alex Nassar, Bernard Puglisi, and Thomas Leary; Our Lady of Mercy: Anne Doyle, Barbara Elsmont, and Carol Wischmeyer; St. Agnes: Carol Bleier, Martha Davin, Ruth Egan, Catherine Davin, Jane Zicari and Concetta Triassi; Nazareth: Elaine Mandery and Wendy Cornish.

ALL 16 STUDENTS have been active representatives of the Inter-High School Council during the current school year.

In addition: Bernard Puglisi has been a member of the Council's executive committee; Carol Bleier, Elaine Mandery, and Carol Wischmeyer have served on the Council's annual publication, "The Commentator," and Ruth Egan has been a member of the Council's speakers bureau.

Both Ruth Egan and Carol Bleier have participated in the Junior Red Cross Rochester State Hospital project.

Musans Plan Initiation

Musa Caravan, Order of the Alhambra will have a delegation going to Buffalo, Sunday, May 21 for the International Ceremony of Cordova Caravan, Buffalo in the Knights of Columbus clubhouse.

The initiation ceremony is dedicated to the memory of Past Grand Commander Norman A. O'Brien of Rochester, according to Grand Commander Philip J. Randazzo of Musa.

Rochester Alhambra candidates will leave Columbus Civic Center at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 20 by motorcoach. Registration will be made at Statler-Hilton Hotel upon arrival in Buffalo. A pre-ceremonial reception will be held at Hotel Lafayette Crystal Room at 10 p.m.

Mass will be attended at St. Joseph's Cathedral on Delaware Ave. Sunday, May 21. Lunch at the Statler-Hilton at 11 a.m. Ceremonial will begin at 1 p.m.

Bus Pilgrimage Slated By Franciscan Order

A pilgrimage of thanksgiving, open to the public, will be conducted Sunday, June 4th, by St. Patrick's Fraternity of the Third Order of St. Francis, in honor of the Feast of Corpus Christi.

Buses will accommodate participants from various points of the city, but will depart at 9 a.m. from St. Patrick's Church, 445 Plymouth Ave. N. and proceed to Williamsville, N.Y., via the Thruway, with rest stops provided.

IN WILLIAMSVILLE, at 4 p.m., a Solemn High Mass of thanksgiving will be celebrated by the Rev. Bonaventure Brown, O.F.M., in the historical Franciscan Chapel dedicated to Our Blessed Lady of the Angels, at 400 Mill St.

The Rev. Lee May of LeRoy, will be Deacon of the Mass, with the Rev. Rene Phillip, O.F.M., acting as Subdeacon. Students of the Minor Seminary of Buffalo will act as servers and the Nun's Choir of the Franciscan Motherhouse will sing.

Master of Ceremonies will be the Rev. J. Amico of the Diocesan Minor Seminary of Buffalo. The Rev. Patrick McGavin, O.F.M., Franciscan missionary preacher and instructor at Bishop Timon High School will deliver the sermon.

Because of the proximity of the Feast of St. Anthony, June 13, St. Anthony's bread will be blessed and distributed during an outdoor procession, weather permitting, around the shrinedotted grounds.

Following the ceremonies, the pilgrims will proceed to the Peace Bridge Motel in Buffalo for a seven-course dinner, after which the buses will return to Rochester, to arrive at approximately 8 p.m.

COMPLETE COST of the pilgrimage, including the dinner, is $6.00. Tickets may be purchased at Rhea's Gift Shoppe.
