

OSY Deanery Slates Mass, Communion

Geneva — Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery of the Rochester Diocesan Council, National Council of Catholic Women, will sponsor the second Mass and corporate Communion in honor of Our Lady of Fatima on Saturday, June 3.

Mass will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m. in St. Mary's Church, Canandaigua. The Rev. Thomas Staat, assistant at St. Mary's, will celebrate the dialogue Mass and will give a meditation on the First Saturday devotions.

The three Canandaigua affiliates, St. Mary's Rosary Altar Society, Court Assumption CDA, and the St. Vincent de Paul Society will sponsor a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. at Caruso's on Canandaigua Lake.

THE INTERNATIONAL relations committee will honor Miss Kay Geronomo of the Philippines, exchange student at Canandaigua Academy, who will bring greetings from the Philippines to the members.

The luncheon speaker will be the Rev. Richard O'Connell, administrator of St. Dominic's Church, Shortsville and Manchester. Father O'Connell is the brother of the Rev. James O'Connell, moderator of the OSY Deanery.

Mrs. John Muzdak of Canandaigua, deanery treasurer, will preside as toastmistress.

Mrs. Julian G. Humiston, president of Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery, announced that Communion will be distributed at the Mass. The Chapel doors will be open to receive guests arriving for the ceremonies, at 5:00 p.m. All are invited.

Seneca Falls has affiliated with the NCCW.

Mrs. Frank Cutri Jr. of Canandaigua is luncheon chairman. Co-chairman in charge of reservations is Mrs. Robert Beck, 224 Gibson St., Canandaigua, tel. 2592. Deadline for reservations is noon Wednesday, May 31.

Corpus Christi Celebration Set At Cenacle

Celebration of the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 1 at the Cenacle Retreat House will be enhanced by the availability of the new Chapel. Holy Mass will be celebrated in the Adoration Chapel at 5:30 p.m. by Monsignor Edward J. McAniff.

Following the Mass, the procession of the Blessed Sacrament will take place, going from the Chapel, through the garden.

Communion will be distributed at the Mass. The Chapel doors will be open to receive guests arriving for the ceremonies, at 5:00 p.m. All are invited.

Catechist Graduation

Geneva Priest Slates First Solemn Mass

Geneva—The Rev. Patrick Stephen Chiarilli, son of Mrs. Pasqualina Chiarilli, 222 N. Genesee St., and the late Oranto J. Chiarilli, will be ordained to the priesthood at 9 a.m. Saturday, May 27, in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Camden, N.J.

The young priest will be ordained by His Excellency the Most Rev. Celestine J. Damiano, D.D., Archbishop-Bishop of Camden. He will celebrate his first solemn Mass at 10 a.m., on Memorial Day, May 30, in St. Francis de Sales Church. There will be Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:15 p.m. in the church.

A dinner for the family and members of the clergy will be served at noon in Club 86 and a reception will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. in the same club.

Father Chiarilli was graduated from De Sales High School and studied for three years at St. Andrew's Seminary and three years at St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester; and four years at Christ the King Seminary, St. Bonaventure, N.Y., near Olean. He will be assigned in the Camden Diocese.

Events Set At Sacred Heart Academy

The traditional outdoor procession and crowning of Our Lady at the three shrines will be held at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, 8 Prince St. on Wednesday, May 31 at 2:15 p.m. On Thursday, June 1st at 2 p.m. the Feast of Corpus Christi, there will be an outdoor procession of the Blessed Sacrament. Alumnae, parents and friends are invited to these ceremonies.

Field Day awards and closing exercises for the middle and junior schools will take place on Friday, June 2. Closing exercises for the Kindergarten will be on Saturday, June 3. Closing exercises for the academic classes will be on Monday, June 5.

Children of alumnae of the Academy of the Sacred Heart and younger brothers and sisters of children attending the school are invited to a party on the Academy grounds Saturday, May 27 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Heaven - Fiesta, Hell - Hangover!

Viacha, Bolivia—(NC)—Local customs have given American priests in this mountain town an easy way of explaining Heaven to the local Indians: It's a never-ending fiesta, without alcohol.

Hell is the day of regret after fiesta—never ending.

Fiestas in this part of the Andes mountains have a way of turning into weeklong drinking bouts, with monumental hangovers.

Bishop Kearney Slated In First Friday Talk

Bishop Kearney will be honored guest and speaker at the First Friday Luncheon Club meeting, June 2 in Hotel Sheraton, Andrew E. Knauf, chairman of the Knights of Columbus sponsoring committee said today.

The Bishop who encouraged the founding of the First Friday Club is traditionally the speaker in June, the month devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Chairman Knauf said.

Presentation of the Bishop will be made by the Rev. Vincent E. LeFrois, club moderator and chaplain of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus. Luncheon begins at 12:15 p.m.

ALL CATHOLIC men who receive Holy Communion on the First Friday are eligible to attend the luncheon. Fourth Degree and Alhambra members and Knights of Columbus in various councils in Monroe County area will have special delegations, Knauf said.

Nuns To Attend Summer Course

Two faculty members of Our Lady of Mercy High School have been awarded opportunities for further study this summer in the field of social studies.

Sister Mary Veronica is among the 40 teachers awarded participation in the Summer Institute on Latin America at the University of Rochester from June 26 to Aug. 4.

The institute for high school teachers of social studies is sponsored by the University of Rochester, aided by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation.

This is the second summer Sister Mary Veronica has been selected for the program at the River Campus. Sister received her master's degree from Duquesne University.

Sister Mary Walter is one of 50 recipients of a General Electric Foundation Economics Fellowship from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. The program will be conducted from June 26 to August 4 by the Department of Economics, History and Social Science at Rensselaer.

Sister Mary Walter received her Ph. B. from Siena Heights College, Adrian, Mich.

Essay Contest Winner Named

Cheryl Greene, a junior at Our Lady of Mercy High School, is one of three winners in the 1961 High School Student Essay Contest sponsored by the Armed Forces Day Project Committee, Rochester Area.

Her 800-word essay on the topic, "Power for Peace," won for her and her family a "Day on the Lake" on board the patrol craft USS Prescott (PCS 1423) as guests of the United States Navy on May 16.

The essays of the three winners — one sophomore, one junior and one senior in the Rochester area — were judged on the basis of clarity of presentation, relevancy of coverage and general interest, according to Capt. C. P. Callahan, U. S. Navy, chairman of the Armed Forces Day Project Committee, Rochester area.

The essay theme "Power for Peace" is again the slogan this year for Armed Forces Day, which will be observed by local civic and military organizations on May 20.
