Awards Made, May Rites Held By Varied Troops

Holy Rosary Girl Scouts and Mothers entertained the 1961 May Day Ceremonies, crowning the Blessed Mother by their queen, Patricia Zeh.

A committee headed by Mrs. Ruth Zeh and Mrs. Dora Dischino handled the particulars. Troop 557 served the breakfast. Rev. James Doyle was guest speaker.

Girl Scout Troop 789 of St. Theodore's Church will award the Curved Bar to eight girls on June 2. They are: Marilyn

Activities For Seniors Slated At Mercy High

Senior farewell activities are crowding the calendar at Our Lady of Mercy High School this week with the Senior Ball, Class Day and Junior-Senior Party trying for top billing.

LEN HAWLEY'S orchestra will play for the Senior Ball from 9-12 p.m. in the school gym Friday (tonight) June 2, according to Sister Mary-Bryan, class moderator, and Kathleen Doran, dance chairman.

Decorations under chairman Mary Jo Carey and Joanne England center around the theme of the current Broadway hit, "Camelot." Effects in gold, blue and green include a turreted gilded castle and a miniature drawbridge.

The queen of the ball will be chosen by her class during intermission.
