Powell Backs U.S. Aid To Parochial Schools

Washington — (RNS) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, came out here in support of federal aid to parochial and private schools as part of the extension of the federal Defense Education Act. A powerful New York Democrat who is also pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist church in Harlem, Mr. Powell urged inclusion of church-related schools in financial aids provided by the Act, a position taken by the Roman Catholic hierarchy. Such aid, he said, would be in the form of loans for strengthening mathematics, science and language teaching. "This will not serve as federal support of any religion," he said. "Rather, it is directed as a necessary support of a defense measure for all students, not just those in public schools."

Senate Ponders

Does TV Stir Youth Crime?

Washington — (RNS) — More than half the television programs featured during the prime evening hours, 7 to 10 o'clock, are devoted to crime and violence, Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) said here as the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee which he heads opened a far-reaching probe into the relationship of violence on television to rising rates of juvenile crime. There is strong evidence to be found among the inmates of his ever-expanding prisons that crime, mayhem, and violence on TV "has a deleterious emotional effect on youth and creates the risk of delinquent behavior," Mr. Bennett said. The Federal prison director concluded his testimony by reciting a poem to the subcommittee which he heard recently at an international gathering of law enforcement officers. Sing a song of TV For the little ones, Four and twenty jailbirds packing tommy-guns When the scene is finished The blood is ankle deep. agencies by showing police to be venal or stupid and frequent To send the kids to sleep?
