WHAT'S NEW IN THE PARISHES

CORPUS CHRISTI. A class of 45 students will be graduated from Corpus Christi School in ceremonies, June 22. Class officers are: Michael Siebert, president; Jean Carnevale, vice president; Jane Callahan, secretary; Ronald Cowley, treasurer. Annual Communion and Breakfast for the graduates sponsored by the Confraternity of Christian Mothers of this parish will be held Sunday, June 18. The annual Family Picnic for families of Corpus Christi School sponsored by the Confraternity will be held at Lower Seneca Park, June 27 starting at 5 p.m. Picnic will be a box lunch with priests and nuns as invited guests. Mrs. Rose Belluci is chairman.

GUARDIAN ANGELS, Henrietta. More than 100 women attended their First Annual Communion and Breakfast, June 4. Breakfast was served in the main dining room of Country Squire Resort Motel after 8 a.m. Mass celebrated in the Regional Market Chapel. Installation of Officers was conducted by Father John B. Kleintjes, pastor. Serving for the term 61-62 will be Mrs. Gerald Sullivan, President; Mrs. Thomas Conlin, Vice President; Mrs. Marian Zellar, Secretary; and Mrs. Donald VanDoren, treasurer.

Mrs. Alfred Gaspar, Mistress of Ceremonies, introduced John A. Temmerman, County Chemist, who explained the hazards involved in certain seemingly harmless toys, ordinary household objects, and certain chemicals which youngsters, especially boys, are prone to experiment with. He enumerated instances in which his Department has served the nation as a whole, as well as the Rochester area. The Rosary Society of Guardian Angels sponsored the event with Mrs. Robert Horton and Mrs. John Kelly acting as co-hostesses, assisted by Mesdames David Quigley, Richard Cooper, Raymond Airy, Daniel Riley and Leslie Caton. Adjourned for the summer months, the next meeting of the Society will be held in September.

Mercy Publications Conclude Year

With the appearance this week of the Cold Frame, senior poetry anthology, the publishing staffs of Our Lady of Mercy High School wound up the school year.

The foreword of the Cold Frame was written by Mrs. Lois McLaughlin, vice president of the Rumrill Advertising Agency, according to Sister Mary Cyprian, moderator of the anthology.

The Cold Frame staff co-editors are Bea Betkowski and Kathy Cusker.

THE JUNE EDITION of the MERCIES, Mercy's literary magazine, is dedicated to school chaplain, Rev. P. David Finks. It includes the creative writing of 74 Mercians and the art work of eight Mercians, under the codirection of Judy Ott and Mary Lou Schrot.

The thirteenth and final edition of the Quill, school newspaper, appeared this week. The Quill has been edited by Mary Ann Binsack and Nancy McHugh.

The fourth Mercy publication to come off the presses within the past two weeks is the Vignettes, senior memory book. Editor of the publication was Madeline Geiger.
