

Fairport Rite Honors High School Graduates

Sister Mary Chrysostom and Sister Mary DeChantal of Our Lady of Mercy High School joined the Catholic teachers of Fairport High School and Superintendent of Fairport Schools Frank Brokaw to pay tribute to the 1961 high school graduates from the parish of the Church of the Assumption, Sunday, June 18.

Pastor of Assumption, Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, addressed the graduates at the Mass.

ASSUMPTION boasts 33 graduates in all. One each from Our Lady of Mercy and McQuaid Jesuit High Schools. Thirty-three from Fairport Minerva Deland High School, of which Louise Columbo and Kathleen Ryan are National Honor Students.

Rev. Ernest Kurtz, newly ordained on June 3, was guest speaker at the breakfast. Father Kurtz cautioned the graduates to live with reality as opposed to conformity. "Practice your religion each day, stay close to your parish, develop your spiritual maturity," he said.

As is the custom each year the baccalaureate rite is arranged by the incoming officers of the Saint Mary's Guild. Recently installed at a banquet on June 7, in their capacity of President, 1st and 2nd Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer respectively were: Mrs. George A. Meyer, Mrs. Gene Malcolm, Mrs. Howard Curtis, Miss Josephine Bartolotta and Mrs. David Waddell.

Spelling Bee Sponsored By Knights In Henrietta

Susan Halpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Halpin of Lehigh Station Road and Timothy Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sullivan of 45 Farnsworth Road were winners of a Spelling Bee sponsored by Our Lady of the Genesee Council, Knights of Columbus, Sunday June 18.

Third grade pupils of Good Shepherd and Guardian Angels parishes participated in the contest at Good Shepherd School. Robert Kuter, chairman of youth activities arranged the program.

FIRST PRIZE winner Susan Halpin received a $25 savings bond and second prize winner, Timothy, a tapestry depicting the Last Supper.

Ninety third graders entered the contest. Sister M. Timothy, principal of Good Shepherd School conducted the preliminaries, reducing the finalists for Sunday's contest to 30 boys and girls. Two-thirds of these youngsters were still standing midway through the spelling bee.

The pronouncer then moved into the level of seventh and eighth grade words in order to eliminate the contestants.

Judges were Father Robert Miller, assistant pastor of Good Shepherd Church, John McCormick, principal of Rush-Henrietta Junior High School, Lucien Morior, justice of the peace, Henrietta. Eugin Eckert was the "pronouncer."
