Priests Killed On Thruway, Requiem Held

Cleveland — Archbishop Edward F. Hoban of Cleveland offered Solemn Requiem Masses in their respective churches Friday and Saturday for the two priests killed in a New York Thruway accident near Clarence, N. Y. last week.

Victims in the worst traffic tragedy ever to involve diocesan priests of Cleveland were the Rev. Stanley A. Mroczka, 47, assistant at St. Charles Borromeo Church and the Rev. Casimir J. Sitko, 46, assistant at Transfiguration.

They were fatally injured shortly after noon Monday of last week when the car in which they were riding veered off the Thruway near Clarence and overturned in a field.

The Rev. Philip Schwier, pastor of Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish in nearby Harris Hill, anointed them at the scene.

Father Mroczka died soon after the accident and Father Sitko died on Tuesday in St. Jerome's hospital.

FOURTH DEGREE Knights of Columbus presented American History awards to students of area high schools at a dinner last week at the Carriage House. James O. Stein, faithful admiral, and Harrie F. Flynn are shown with two of the recipients, Joan Hinz of St. Agnes High School and Peter J. Hansen of St. Andrew's Seminary.

Robert Farrell Heads Rochester Fourth Degree

Robert J. Farrell was elected faithful navigator of Rochester General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus and seven Catholic high school students were presented special awards at a dinner meeting at the Carriage House, June 29.

Named with the new faithful navigator were: T. Kenneth Kavanaugh, faithful captain; Victor DeSimon, faithful pilot; James O. Stein, faithful admiral; Harrie F. Flynn, inside sentinel; John E. Gartland, outside sentinel; Thomas G. Shea, faithful comptroller; and Francis R. Attinasi, faithful scribe.

Recognition was given to the outgoing faithful navigator, James O. Stein and his group of officers for a successful season.

PRIZE WINNERS for outstanding work in history were: Joann Hinz, 144 Danforth Crescent, St. Agnes High School; Peter J. Hansen, 379 Laurelton Road, St. Andrew's Seminary; James J. Van Lare, 149 Willis Ave., Aquinas Institute; Maureen E. Bell, 5231 Dewey Ave., Nazareth Academy; Donald E. Connor, 172 Burwell Road, McQuaid Jesuit High; Ruth Avery Kennedy, 51 Bentham Pkwy., Sacred Heart Academy; Mary Ann Schiller, 3241 Elmwood Ave., Our Lady of Mercy High.

Each year the Fourth Degree makes a practice of entertaining at dinner, a group of students who have proved to be exceptional in history, the Knights said.

Third Order Franciscans Slate Rosary

Members of St. Patrick's Fraternity of the Third Order of St. Francis will participate in the Family Rosary for Peace radio program on Saturday, July 8 at 7 p.m. in St. Francis of Assisi Church Family Rosary Center, 401 Orange St.

THE FAMILY Rosary program is broadcast every evening over radio station WSAY, under the direction of the Rev. Joseph A. Cirrincione, pastor.

The Rosary will be recited by Paul Hagenbach, a member of St. Joseph's parish.

Tertiaries are requested to note that in the months following, a regular attendance at the Family Rosary Center will occur on the second Saturday of the month, with the exception of November, when the date will occur on the third Saturday, Nov. 18.

The Third Order Fraternity will welcome, at the Family Rosary Center, any who would wish to participate in the recitation of the Rosary.

Two Geneva Scouts Receive Eagle Awards

Geneva — Two local youths were presented with Eagle Scout awards at the annual troop and Post One picnic recently.

Scouts Danny Castelluzzo, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Castelluzzo, 28 Genesee St., and David Antenucci, son of Mr. and Mrs Francis Antenucci, 48 Hamilton St., were the recipients of the highest award in scouting. The awards were presented by Finger Lakes Council president, Dr. V. M. Marshall.

SCOUT CASTELLUZZO joined Troop 1 in September, 1959, and is a patrol leader. Having fulfilled the requirements at the age of 12, he is the third brother in his family to achieve the eagle rank in the past year. Brother Randy was awarded his in December and Gary his in March.

Danny is a choir and altar boy at St. Francis de Sales and will begin eighth grade there in fall. He attended Camp Babcock Hovey last summer and will again be with the troop at camp again this year.

SCOUT ANTENUCCI joined Troop 1 in October, 1960, after transferring from Troop 15, Border City. He has held the position of Den Chief of Pack 5 since that time.

The mothers of the new Eagle Scouts were presented with miniature pins of the son's awards. The troop and post are sponsored by First Baptist Church of Geneva. Their leaders are scoutmasters Charles Hartman and Harold Withiam and advisor Don Rosenthl.

Riley Couple Marks 60 Years Of Marriage

Geneva — Mr. and Mrs. William R. Riley of Castle St., celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary recently.

A RECEPTION was given at the family summer home, 686 E. Lake Rd. About 60 guests from Geneva, Auburn, Cortland, Rochester, Syracuse, Johnson City, and Milwaukee were present.

Married in St. Mary's Church, Cortland, the couple came to Geneva in 1937. Mr. Riley operated a liquor store at 146 Castle St., until his retirement two years ago. He is still active in the business however.

The couple has one son, William F. Riley, who lives at 156 LaFayette Ave., and another son, Donald, is deceased. They have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Riley was born Oct. 31, 1878 and Mrs. Riley on Nov. 24, 1880. They were both baptized in the same church and were members of the same confirmation class. Both were born in Cortland.

MR. RILEY formerly operated the Messenger Hotel in Cortland for 17 years before moving to Geneva. He was formerly chief of the fire department in Cortland and was president of the Central New York Firemen's Assn.

He has been a member of the Elks for 57 years and is still a member of the Elks organization; of Geneva Rod and Gun Club, and of Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus, and other local clubs and organizations.

Mrs. Riley is a member of the Catholic Daughters in Cortland., Both are members of St. Stephen's Church. They attended Mass, received Communion and were given the blessing of the pastor, the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan.

Deanery Head Makes Appeal

Mrs. Peter Papero, president of Livingston Deanery Council of Catholic Women is asking all presidents of each affiliation to send name and address and name of organization to her.

The names are to be addressed to Mrs. Peter Papero, 27 Main St., Caledonia.

She asked that the names be sent as soon as possible to be sent to the convention chairman in Rochester.

Miss McCourt Requiem Held

Funeral Mass for Mary Elizabeth ("Mayme") McCourt was offered in Blessed Sacrament Church, Thursday, June 29. Miss McCourt of 17 Tracy St. died June 25, 1961 at the family home.

SOLEMN MASS of Requiem was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas F. Connors assisted by the Rev. Francis Pegnam, deacon and the Rev. Paul I. Cloonan, subdeacon.

Miss McCourt was a member of the Rosary Society of Blessed Sacrament Church and the Catholic Women's Club.

Daughter of the late John and Anna Mullen McCourt, she was the sister of the late Henry S., John J., Augusta A. and Marjorie F. McCourt. Miss McCourt was born in Le Roy and moved to Rochester with her parents when a young child.

She leaves a sister, Maybelle M. McCourt, for many years a staff member of the Rochester Times-Union, and several cousins.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the blessing was given by Rev. Robert McFiggins. Arrangements by John J. Curran Funeral Home.
